

FINAL CENTER EXAM SCHEDULE

"Mene, mene, tekel epharsen"—and Daniel of biblical fame translated that: "You have been weighed and found wanting"; so likewise the time is near at hand for, as Wordsworth puts it:

"Examinations, when the man was weighed
As in a balance!"

Consequently one of the necessary evils the "Collegian" must report is the final exam schedule. Exam week begins on Thursday, May 26, and runs to the following Thursday.

Morning exams run from 9 to 11; afternoon, from 2 to 4. The schedule is as follows:

Thursday morning: History 21; Thursday afternoon: Economics 15 and Physics 281.

Friday morning: English Composition 5 and French 6; Friday afternoon: Mechanics 1, Mathematics 7 and Political Science 10.

Tuesday (May 31) morning: Economics 16 and French 4; Tuesday afternoon: German 2 and Physics 282.

Wednesday morning: German 4 and

THE CANDID CAMERA: Walter Organist, bluffing his way thru a German translation . . . Charlie McGeehan, bringing his queen down to checkmate Ross Blyler's king . . . Louie Smith, checking oil at the new Atlantic station . . . Fred McDowell, looking very pious and goody-goody as the chaplain in "The Valiant" . . . Timko, with a beautiful gentle smile on his face as he sits sound asleep in one of the library's easy chairs . . . Donald Hess, looking very tired and drawn in the morning after a night swinging it with the Pennsylvanians . . . Earl Seybert, relaxing his six feet two in an office easy chair . . . Russ Beltz, pounding out swing at those Wednesday hops . . . our columnist neglecting punctuation, especially the full stop.

Chemistry 4; Wednesday afternoon: Social Science 1 and Mathematics 11.

Thursday morning: French 2 and Chemistry 2; Friday afternoon: Mathematics 9.
