

Alumni Notations

The Alumni activities during the summer season have included a theater party at the Green Gables Theater and two picnics, one at Rock Glen in June and the other at Crystal pool in August.

On Christmas night an All-College dance will be sponsored by the Center Alumni Association, the proceeds from which will be used to establish the "Robert E. Eiche Scholarship Fund".

Members of the Board of Alumni are at present planning a filing system in order to get an accurate account concerning all members of the organization.

bert H. Reichard, instructor of mathematics and physics.

Miss Muck comes here from the University of Michigan, where for the past year she has been doing graduate work toward her Master of Arts degree, which she received at Ann Arbor last spring. She has had considerable experience in high school and college teaching as well as among adult education groups, and has served as a director of dramatics and public speaking coach.

Replacing Mr. T. Stewart Goas, former instructor of history and political science here who is the new assistant administrative head of Altoona, is Miss Saby, who has served under Miss Charlotte E. Ray, dean of women at Penn State, and has been in charge of one of the women's dormitories on the campus. She comes here after a year spent on the faculty of the Northern State Teachers College, Aberdeen, South Dakota.

Coming here from the campus where he has been doing advanced study at the French Institute, Mr. Brentin is teaching elementary and advanced courses in French and also courses in English composition. The new language instructor is a graduate of Youngstown College and the Pennsylvania State College.

Mr. Reichard has had five years experience teaching physics as a graduate student at Lehigh, Penn State and the University of Michigan. He has also a wide background in the industrial and research activities, and has had several papers published in various technical journals.

the various student councils to meet and discuss suggestions and ideas for improving their councils and student government organizations.

The social highlight of the conference will come on Friday night when a dinner and dance will be held at the Altamont Hotel for the Center student body and their guests. The dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock and an interesting dinner program is being arranged by the committee in charge. Dr. B. V. Moore, professor of psychology and education on the Penn State campus, has been secured as the principal speaker; while several other guests will also be called upon for remarks. Dancing will start at 9 o'clock and the music will be furnished by Milt Wiener's Orchestra from Wilkes-Barre.

Saturday morning the delegates will again meet at the center to continue their discussion of the previous afternoon, and the conclave will be brought to a close with a farewell luncheon to be held at 12:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Walter's Tea Room.

the Eastman-Kodak Company with 61 per cent of its income from the purchase of films, according to Mr. Stover.

With the present high speed films and the high speed of shutters it is possible to take a picture of a ball breaking a window at the instant of contact, the speaker declared. The time of the shutters is .002 of a second for such work.

All students desirous of becoming members of the club are asked to report to Mr. Harold Taylor to find out the date of the next meeting.
