H.U.C. Institutes Lecture Program On General Health

Through the cooperation of the Hazleton Branch of the Luzerne County Medical Society, the Hazleton Undergraduate Center has this semester instituted an educational program of lectures on personal and public health that so far as the organization is concerned is unique in the junior college field. The course is open to all regularly enrolled freshmen and sophomores, and a total registration of 70 has been secured.

A series of 15 lectures dealing with various phases of personal and public health has been worked out by the committee. A partial list of those already assigned to speak and the titles of their discussions are as follows:

Feb. 13: Dr. McAloose, "Syphilis: Its History and Diagnosis."

Feb. 20: Dr. McAloose, "Its Treatment."

Feb. 27: Dr. McAloose, "The Other Social Diseases."

March 3: Dr. E. F. Hanlon, "History of Medicine."

March 12: Dr. G. F. Burkhardt, "Tuberculosis."

March 19: Dr. F. C. Eshelman, "Colds, Nose, Throat, and Ear Infections."

Later discussions will be given by Dr. Reiche on "Eye Disorders," but dates for these talks have not yet been set. Other topics to be included on the program are "Acute Communicable Diseases," "Dental Hygiene," "Heart and Circulation," "Skin Infection," "Effects of Improper Diet."

6 New Students Enroll at Center

Six new students, five of whom are from this region, have enrolled at the Hazleton Center, bringing the total up to ninety-five.

The new students are:

Andrew Petruncio, McAdoo; Robert Rhoads, Hazleton; William F. Hill, Freland; Walter Klinger, Drums; Louise Repko, Hazleton; Rosemary Marley, Morea.

Andrew Petruncio is a transfer from Temple University in Philadelphia and William Hill is an instructor at the Mining and Mechanical Institute. The latter is taking a course in integral calculus.

Mr. Reed New H.U.C. Coach

At the beginning of the second semester, Mr. Henry Reed, former coach of a local semi-professional basketball team, accepted the position of coach for the H.U.C. basketball team. Under his supervision the team has shown a growing interest and a decided improvement.

Messenger Service Started

Messenger service has now been established at the Hazleton Undergraduate Center. Every day at 11 A. M. Andrew Petruncio goes downtown to do various errands for the Center.

Glee Club Still Singing

Because of the change in schedule at the end of the semester, the members of the Glee Club now have a two-hour meeting every Wednesday afternoon from 3:00 P. M. to 5:00 P. M.

New sheet music and song books have been secured in order to vary the program. If a large enough number of boys are interested, a male chorus will be organized.

Illustrated Talk Given

"Seing Things for Keeps" was the topic of a lecture given by Mr. Taylor at the last meeting of the Hocus Focus Club. Slides related to this subject were provided by the Eastman Kodak Company.

The subject for discussion at the next meeting will be "Personal Photography."

Alumni Notations

Charles Schmidt '39 has secured a position as instructor in the Hazleton Public Schools for the coming year.

Vivian Staub '38 and Becky Baskin '38 are at present employed in the Department of Public Assistance office in Hazleton.
