

Student Opinion

A survey of student opinion has shown that the printed newspaper is preferred to the present form of the "Collegian".

Of course the "slick" has its advantages. It is more popular with the students because it looks more collegiate - more like a grown-up production. It is possible to use cuts in a slick, while only caricatures can be mimeographed. Also, a printed paper is in booklet form; the pages are like those of a real newspaper. A slick also makes possible real headlines because of various sizes of type.

However, the mimeographed paper has several advantages over the slick. First of all, it is very economical. Another point in its favor is the fact that the news is fresh when it reaches the student, - it is "hot off the press". The issues can come out more often, too. The mimeographed paper also requires less time from the staff; for with it no one has to run around trying to get advertisements.

Upon weighing both sides carefully, the staff has come to the following decision: we plan to have two or three issues of the slick, which will appear intermittently throughout the year, in addition to the mimeographed issues.

Staff

Editorial Board--

Editor-in-chief	Bernard L. Zelman
Ass't Editors	Irv R. Weinberg Nancy J. Yost George E. Sholtis

Reporters

Bastuscheck	Danks	Long
Berg	DeMaico	Lewis
Breisch	Bilbert	Marusak
Brennan	Kistler	Pinger
	Swankoski

Faculty Advisors

Miss Saby
Mr. Chase
Mr. Taylor

Did You Know --

"I had a date with a dream" is Sid Klemow's favorite expression. We're still trying to find out who the dream is.

Danville hods special interest for Vic Martini. From what we hear she's plenty hot all right.

Jean Danks roots for Penn instead of Penn State. Two years is a long time to stick to one guy!

Have you noticed the "howling" that comes from the game room? Smokey McNelis has it down to perfection.

Chuck Cowell escorted a cute blond to the Hallowe'en party. But where did he hide her? Maybe she was afraid of the Center wolves!

Lois' party costume captured quite a few hearts at the Hallowe'en party - especially Birke's -- he even took her home.

Al Bishop is commonly known as "the Great Lover". Who is she, Al?

Have you noticed that Barney Reichard never looks at a girl? We hear Kay has spies in town.

That Pottsville trip certainly affected Jacqueline. She was enraptured with the results of the student dance.

Have you heard rumors of a party to be held at the home of Miss DeFina? From what we've heard it's to be rather exclusive. But definitely!

Andrew Marusak likes to live at home. We Bet(ty) a certain Weber is the reason.

Said one student to the other, "Who do you have for English, 'Pearls of Wisdom'?" Said the other student to the one "No, I have a 'hunk of heaven.'"

Bill Adkins does a lot of sighing over a certain little valley lass. Competition for Maderick.