

COLLEGE SONGS

We are publishing, in accord with our student service policy, a list of our college songs. These are the songs that have been sung at "STATE" for many generations. They are a part of college life. All of us know the pleasure we can get from singing songs we know and love. We all have thrilled to the good fellowship that such singing engenders. Let's learn these songs and join in heartily whenever they are sung.

PENN STATE COLLEGE SONGS AND CHEERS

ALMA MATER

For the glory of Old State,
For her founders strong and great
For the futures that we wait,
Raise the song, raise the song.

Sing our love and loyalty,
Sing our hopes that, bright and free
Rest, O Mother dear, with thee,
All with thee, all with thee.

When we stood at boyhood's gate,
Shapless in the hands of Fate;
Thou didst mould us, dear old State,
Into men, into men.

May no act of ours bring shame
To one heart that loves thy name;
May our lives help swell thy fame,
Dear Old State, Dear Old State.

VICTORY SONG

Come now, classmen, let us sing,
Royally support the team;
We're here today with our colors gay,
Ready to win the fray . . .
Whether it be Pitt or Penn
Harvard or Cornell,
Play the game, every man,
And we will win today.

Chorus

Fight, fight, fight, for the Blue and White,
Victory will our slogan be;
Dear Alma Mater, fairest of all,
Thy loyal sons will obey thy call
To fight, fight, fight, with all their might
Ever the goal to gain;
Into the game for Penn State's fame.
Fight on to victory,
All along the line. (Chorus repeat)

THE NITTANY LION

Every college has a legend
Passed on from year to year,
To which they pledge allegiance
And always cherish dear;
But of all the honored idols,
There's but one which stands the test,
It's the stately Nittany Lion,
The symbol of our best.

Chorus

Hail to the Lion, Loyal and true,
Hail Alma Mater with your White and Blue.
Penn State forever, Mother of men,
Fight for her honor, FIGHT!
And Victory again.

There's old Pittsburgh with its panther
And Penn red and blue;
Dartmouth with its Indian
And Yale, her bulldog, too.
There's old Princeton with its tiger,
And Cornell with its bear
But speaking now of vict'ry
We'll get the lion's share.

THE BLUE AND WHITE

Where the vale of old Mt. Nittany
Meets the eastern sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater,
On her hill-top high.

When the evening twilight deepens;
And the shadows fall,
Lingers long the golden sun beam
On thy western wall.

Chorus

Flag we love! Blue and White!
Float for aye
Old Penn State, o'er thee;
May thy sons be leal and loyal to thy memory.

"NEW" YELL

Yay! State! Yay! State! Yay! State!
Hoo-rah Penn State! Hoo-rah Penn State!
P-E-N-N-S-T-A-T-E Penn State!!!!

SUSIE

I went to see my Susie;
She met me at the door,
She told me that I need not come
To see her anymore;
She fell in love with another
Named Andrew Jackson Lee,
So here's farewell to old true love . . .

Chorus

Farewell, Pennsylvania state,
Alma Mater, fare thee well,
We now must leave thee,
Leave the home we love so well.

Her face was like an oyster,
Her foot was like a ham,
Her eyes shone forth like stars at night;

Her voice was never ca(l)l m
Her hair was long and stringy,
She looked just like a clam —
So here's farewell to old true love.

"LION" YELL

N-I! Double T! A-N! Y!
N-I! Double T! A-N! Y!
N-I! Double T! A-N! Y!
Roar! Lion! Roar!

Blue Book Blues

DEAR "MERRY"—

I am writing this letter to the strains of "Til' Eulenspiegel." I'll give you two guesses as to what class I'm in. Things are really buzzing at HUC, that's why I have to deprive myself of some of these most important music notes and write to you instead.

I'll start by telling you about the girls first and save the man element latter. Last Tuesday the freshmen women were invited to a covered dish supper held by the sophomore women. The purpose of this affair was to pledge in the freshmen women besides giving them dishpan hands. The sad part of the evening was that not only did we have to bring our own food, but we had to wash every dish and anything else that resembled one. I'll bet you can't imagine who washed? That's right, yours truly did the job. We used a system resembling the assembly line at Lockheed. Now for the really humiliating part of belonging to a sorority! All pledges must wear for three days, a comical hat of our own creation, and a green and yellow bow around our ankle. Everytime we see a sophomore member of the Omega Chi Tau Sorority we have to bow from the waist down. Oh woe, and I thought we were free from freshmen antics.

Did I tell you about the women's bowling team? Well, wait till you hear this one. They were supposed to play the feminine members of the faculty last Thursday, but evidently, the ladies prefer to remain teachers instead of being taught, because they never showed up at the appointed place. What do you make of that? Am I right?

The student council is having a Turkey Trot on the 26th of this month. It is free of charge and open to all students of HUC. The attire will be informal and a good time is promised to all. I'll write later and give you every detail.

Now for that ever interesting topic "The Men". What a conglomeration of the male sex! HUC could fill any girl's desire. The men range from 6 ft. 5 in. to about 5 ft. Some are thin and some pleasingly plump, while there are still others who have managed to attain a happy medium. The main thing, however, is their personalities. I must confess that on the whole they are perfect gentlemen. As for conduct in class, they just can't be beat in class participation. They really are applying themselves and making an honest to goodness effort to learn something. Not only are they good students but they are conversationalists. What a sense of humor they possess. Laughter is certainly in abundance when they are around.

Miss Garbrick, that's the music teacher, just started to say something about a bassoon. I got frightened for a minute. I thought she had called me a big baboon. Guess I better listen for awhile now so I'll close with a perfect cadence. A perfect cadence, my dear Merry, is something in music that corresponds to a period. See, I'm learning!

Bye now
Lo Le

Artie: Where is the capitol of the United States?
Louie: That should be asked of the treasurer.

Dramatic Course To Be Started Next Semester

Miss Scarnecchia, dramatic advisor, informed the COLLEGIAN that a course in dramatics will be started at HUC next semester. This course will be patterned after the one appearing on catalogue and at the campus.

In addition to the study of drama history, there will be included the analysis of stage presentation, the art of make-up, and stage terminology. The more advanced second semester students will study stage direction.

Students desiring to transfer to the Campus for February, 1946, should do the following:

1. Make application for transfer at the office.
2. Write to the campus concerning rooming accommodations. Men should write to Mr. D. E. Marino, Veterans' Housing Coordinator, and women should write to Miss Lucille Anderson, Dean of Women, requesting that their names be put on the list for rooming accommodations.
