

LUCIA HEADS COLLEGE COUNCIL PENN STATE IN HAZLETON IS ON THE AIR

FATSIE EDGED OUT BY NINE VOTES; MUNROE FRESHMAN PRESIDENT

By RAY PHILLIPS

Students of HUC went to the polls on Oct. 13 and 14 and when the results were all in and tabulated, twelve students had been chosen to head and represent their respective classes. With every office at stake voting was heavy and competition lively.

Frank Lucia squeezed into the all-important Sophomore presidency, beating Francis Fatsie by nine votes, 80-71. Walter Steinman ran a close third in this battle. Lucia, under the new set-up recently inaugurated at HUC, automatically becomes President of the new Student Council.

In the battle for Sophomore Vice President, John Riley won by a comfortable margin over his nearest opponent, Samuel Marolo, the final count being 88-35. Mamon Saul and Donald Smith were tied for third and were close behind Marolo.

The Freshman elections, while not so close as those of the Sophomores, provided some interesting returns especially in the number of votes polled by the winning candidates.

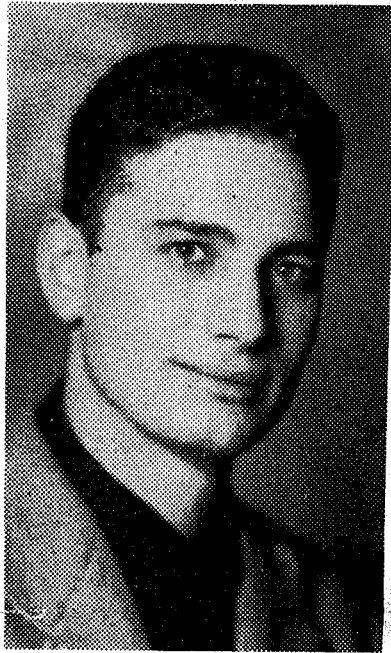

James Munroe ran away from the rest of the field in the Freshman Presidency battle, getting 117 votes to 60 for his nearest opponent, Michael Arlotto with Harry Klemic running third.

The most decisive victory of the day went to Richard Waechter who won the Freshman Vice Presidency. Waechter, in winning, ran up the highest total of votes in the entire election. Final returns saw Waechter beating opponent Albert Rosen, 148-65.

Clarence Sipple won over two opponents to become Sec.-Treas. of the Sophomore Class. Sipple polled a total of 84 votes with Henry Deren and Patricia Kringe finishing in that order.

Freshman Mary Ellen McHugh was unopposed as she ran for Sec.-Treas. of the Freshman class and thus had no trouble in winning the position.

While the three Freshman candidates for Student Council also had no opposition, nine Sophomores were seeking to become the representatives from that class. Bernard Dvorsak, James Fischer and Jane Kenvin prevailed over the others to become the Sophomore Delegates to the College Council. The unopposed Freshman candidates were Anthony Dombroski, Irene Smith and Ralph Spayd.

Hardest worker in the election was Mr. Syd Rudman who literally "took the polls" to many of the students in their classrooms, and through whose efforts the success of the election was secured.

Here's hoping the reign of the new administration is a happy, successful and wise one.

Wedding Bells Ring Out

Simon Faltz, a student at HUC, traveled halfway across the world to find education and a wife and found both in Hazleton, Pa.

Simon, who is in his fourth semester, was born in the Free State of Danzig but was forced to flee from that city when the Nazis took over. From Danzig he went to Trinidad and finally came to this country where he located in Hazleton and started studies at HUC.

Last week, Simon took as his bride Miss Doris Nelson, a graduate of Hazleton High School class of 1941. After a brief honeymoon in New York, the couple returned to Hazleton where Simon has resumed his studies at HUC.

HISTORY BOOKS NEEDED

Unused history books in the possession of upperclassmen can be put to immediate use by freshmen who were not fortunate enough to obtain copies. It is requested by Dr. Ramsay that those persons who have agreed to loan copies to the History department contact her immediately.

THE COLLEGIAN expresses the sympathy of the student body to Arthur Felicangelo upon the death of his father, and to Mr. Hobson Zerbe upon the death of his mother.

INITIAL THESPIAN PRODUCTION TONIGHT

The first production of the newly organized Thespian Club of the Hazleton Undergraduate Center will hit the airways at 8:00 p.m. over the Hazleton Broadcasting Company's WAZL facilities. With the close of Pennsylvania Week tonight, the production will feature highlights throughout Pennsylvania.

HUC IN TONIGHT'S MUMMERS PARADE

A two level float depicting the activities of the Undergraduate Center here in Hazleton will be entered into the Mummers Parade this evening. The display has been designed by Arthur Carpenter, head of the HUC art department.

On the first level there will be a unit of freshmen wearing "dinks" and name signs. Musical activities at HUC will be presented by a small group playing instruments.

The sophomore class will be presented on the second level. Students wearing varsity "S" sweaters and cheerleading uniforms will make up the remaining part of the second level display.

Surmounting the entire float will be a large arch bearing the name of the undergraduate center and in the arch will be two students in graduation cap and gown. Each one will hold a scroll depicting the final stages of college education.

Assisting Mr. Carpenter in the parade float are A. A. Goss, Edra Staffieri, Margaret Liechty, A. E. Seible and Syd Rudman.

MATHEMATICS CLUB TO REORGANIZE

Mr. Richard K. Coburn, Miss Margaret Wood, and Miss Liechty will come all Mathematics-two students to the first meeting of the Mathematics Club on Monday, October 20, in Room 3 of the Walnut Street Building.

In the past the club discussed problems in Algebra and Trigonometry, worked with trigonometric tables and made easy the use of the slide rule. Student participation contributed to the success of the club. Added to these features this year will be a series of lectures on mathematics by instructors from the Penn State Campus.

"This is the time and place for discussion of the problems you lost sleep over," says Mr. Coburn.
