

Staff Members Of Your COLLEGIAN

Seated (left to right): Bernard Dvorshak, Dan Wargo, Francis Fatsie, Gerald Hassel, Irene Smith, Guy O'Hazza, Ray Phillips, and Leon Baden.
 Standing (left to right): Paul Cerulla, Raymond Saul, Grace McBride, Sigmund Knies, Marguerite Rondish, Wilson Barto, and Mr. Seibel.

Did You Know:

That last school year at the HUC the G. I. students on the whole averaged better than the non-G. I. students? Let's see this year who'll come out on top.

That way back in 1936 when the HUC was in its infancy, the library consisted of a mere three books which Mr. Pugh, supervisor of the Penn State Undergraduate Centers carried into the Markle Bank Building, the first location of the HUC? During the period of time which has elapsed, it has swelled to the total of 2400 volumes and in addition receives forty-two periodicals and six newspapers.

That the Penn State campus, filled to the proverbial brim with students, numbers them at 1,500 gals and 6,000 guys? We're about in the same boat here at HUC with the ratio of 437 males to 37 females. (Then, too, the five very capable office girls can't be left out, by any means.)

That the week of September 22, 1947 will long be remembered by the HUC freshmen? After all, they did fill out an undeterminable number of forms, and signed their names to them no less than TWENTY-SIX times.

That the four undergraduate centers have twenty percent of the whole Penn State student enrollment?

In the HUC we have a larger enrollment at present (474) than our parent university had in its first half century of operation?

That 2100 degrees have been conferred by the college at commencement exercises held since the first of the year?

—George N. Demshock

FIRST HUC BROADCAST ON OCTOBER 30

The first broadcast from WAZL by the Hazleton Undergraduate Center students in the 1947-48 school term will be under the direction of Miss Pearl G. Garbrick, Miss Hilda Lee James, Miss Marion Joy Bonn, and Mr. Arthur Seibel. The skits are to be enacted by the Hazleton branch of the Penn State Thespians, which is made up of the Dramatics and Glee Clubs.

The initial educational program will take the listeners on a college tour of the United States. The audience will visit such famed colleges as Notre Dame, Arizona University, Texas University West Virginia University, Washington State University of Georgia, and finally the campus of the Pennsylvania State College. Throughout the trip comments will be made on each school and the colleges' songs will be sung. The final vocal rendition will be that of the Penn State school song.

The series of broadcasts, after that scheduled for Thursday, October 30, will be heard over station WAZL on the third Thursday of each month from 12:30 until 1:00 p.m.

—Eugene Kostick

The only man who never makes a mistake is the man who never does anything. —Theodore Roosevelt.

Counting time is not so important as making time count. —Walker.

Inquiring Reporter

June Reinmiller

Hopeful rumors have been flying thick and fast about building a bigger and better HUC, but where? When we asked a few of the students where they thought would be a good location for a new center, we got some excellent and varied answers.

QUESTION: What do you think would be a good site for the new HUC?

John J. Corrigan—"I think a good location would be along the Berwick highway or on the route to Drums where we could have nice scenery for a campus."

Cyril Sernak—"A new center should be built where there is plenty of space for a campus, for instance Hazle Park or the Conyngham Valley."

John Watro—"What's wrong with the Heights? The Heights will be one of the nicest sections of the city in the future."

George Kovalich—"A center in Conyngham, with a campus, would bring about more unity among the students. Also, like State College, a center there would offer great possibilities for a greater Hazleton."

John Shawarko—"Since the Heights seems to be the most promising section in Hazleton, I think the new HUC should be built up near the armory."

Le Cercle Francais

Miss Emma Phillips, advisor of the French Club, announces that the first meeting of this club will be held on Wednesday, October 20. All French students, desiring to become members of the Le Cercle Francais, are kindly requested to contact Miss Phillips.

A few of last year's activities included plays, skits, French games, and a trip to New York.

PENN STATE THESPIANS MAKE EXTENSIVE PLANS

Miss Pearl G. Garbrick, instructor of music at the Hazleton Undergraduate Center, welcomes all music-loving students to the Men and Women's Glee Clubs. Meetings of the Glee Clubs are conducted every Tuesday evening in Miss Garbrick's room. When you receive your copy of the Collegian, three meetings of the Glee Clubs will have been held.

Last year the Glee Clubs participated in many school and community functions. A few of these programs were a "Community Sing" at City Hall, a concert at the Presbyterian Church, a luncheon and others too numerous to mention.

Miss Garbrick informed this reporter that a bigger and better year is expected. Highlighting this year's agenda is a broadcast each month shared alternately with the Dramatics Club.

Deutsche Verein

Miss Helen Dossenbach and Miss Anna Erleman, co-advisors of the German Club, extend a cordial invitation to all students wishing to join the Deutsche Verein. Students taking German this year are especially welcomed.

The club was organized in the second semester of last year. Highlighting last year's activities was a trip to New York for a German meal and movie. A few of this year's activities are German singing, German plays, and a reservation for a table once a week in a local restaurant where German students will eat.

On Thursday, October 7, a meeting of the club officers was held at the home of the club's president. On October 16 the club members met for the election and installation of new officers.

FACULTY MEMBERS GO DOMESTIC

A recent advertisement in the local newspapers stated that a family leaving for Florida for the winter would like to rent their six room home. Miss Hilda Lee James wasted little time in getting out to Cranberry Avenue and as a result of her observations, she and three other feminine members of the faculty are moving in next week.

Miss Margaret Liechty, Miss Mary Margaret Wood, and Miss Joy Bonn are going to share this "hacienda" with Miss James. The little household tasks are to be equally divided among the four ambitious young ladies. The duties of the night fireman have not yet been assigned, primarily because none of the four young ladies has ever seen a furnace before. Any suggestions? Miss James had a course in Home Economics which included some cooking, so she will supervise the "kitchen work".

It is rumored that there will be a house-warming and that everybody is welcome; however this rumor has not been confirmed.

DRAMATICS CLUB REHEARSALS HELD

The Dramatics Club under the direction of Miss Hilda James, has conducted four meetings concerning broadcasts over WAZL on October 17 and 30. At these meetings script writers have begun their writing, and radio announcers have begun rehearsing.

Students interested in announcing, script writing, acting, stage designing, or make up, please contact Miss James, Mr. Seibel or Miss Bonn.

For further announcements concerning the Dramatics Club, please consult the bulletin board, for many rehearsals are scheduled at short notice and necessitate full attendance.