HOLD-OVER GUARD

Jack Riordan

John "Jake" Riordan, another hold-over from last year's Eastern champs, will start at guard for the Hucksters when they clash with the Alumni a week from Wednesday night.

John, who hails from Retreat, Pa., is in his fourth semester at HUC, and is majoring in psychology. Before entering the local undergraduate center, he played with Newport Twp. High School.

Riordan is counted upon by Coach Rudman to hold opponents' scoring to a minimum.

Intramural Lead Shared By All-Stars And Aufgabes

At the completion of three weeks of competition, the All-Stars and Aufgabes share honors for the lead in the intra-mural basketball league. Though the Atomic Bums are undefeated, they have played one game less than the Aufgabes and All-Stars. The following standings were compiled after Wednesday's games:

Name of Team	W.	L.	Pct.
All-Stars	3	0	1.000
Aufgabes	3	0	1.000
Atomic Bums	2	0	1.000
Heights A. C.	2	1	.666
Umbrella Shop	2	1	.666
Misfits	2	2	.500
Wreckers	1	2	.500
Engineers	1	2	.333
Rockets	1	2	.333
Frenchmen	0	2	.000
Warriors	0	2	.000
Midgets	0	4	.000

AT GUARD POST

Tom Shuptar

Tom Shuptar, of Mt. Carmel, Pa., has been selected by Coach Rudman to hold down the guard berth along with Jack Riordan.

Tom, who is one of the three team candidates who hail from Mt. Carmel, is a first semester freshman majoring in Chemical Engineering. He played three years with Mt. Carmel High School.

Shuptar stands at an even six feet, is a bulwark on defense and is an excellent team-worker. He is counted on to hold opposing forwards to a minimum of scoring.

Pre-Game Forecasts

(favorites in CAPS)

HAZLETON HIGH-Pottsville — The Mountaineers are back in stride again.

NOTRE DAME-Northwestern — The Irish just keep rolling along.

PENN STATE-Navy — Another stepping stone on the Lions' path to glory.

PENNSYLVANIA - Army — No Blanchard, no Davis, no victory.

MUHLENBERG-Delaware—If we picked Delaware, an Army medico stationed in Florida would stop reading the Collegian.

LAFAYETTE - Fordham — Like leading Rams to slaughter!

COLUMBIA-Holy Cross—Rossides and Kusserow are too much for the boys from Worcester.

GETTYSBURG-St. Lawrence — We always thought St. Lawrence was a river!

BUCKNELL-Buffalo U. — Okay, Mr. K?

SPORTSTUFF

By BADEN and CERULA

The basketball schedule for the 1947-1948 season for the Hucksters has been released and it has the earmarks of being a pretty heavy one for the locals—Two games with National Farm School which were pending were taken off the schedule. A week from Wednesday night the cage season will open with an exhibition tilt against the HUC Alumni, a team consisting of ex-HUC courtmen—Among those taking the floor that night will be "D-DAY" BARNES, JOHNNY APICHELLA, JOE MADAY, and BUSHY DURBACK — It will seem like old times to see the boys back in action at the A. D. Thomas Gym — It wouldn't surprise us if JOIE APICHELLA were called upon to guard brother JOHN. According to reports DON BARNES is playing intra-mural football at State College—If there is a touch of sadist in you, you may enjoy an afternoon packed full of mayhem by taking in one of the local sandlot football games.

It's possible that the winner of the P.J.C.A.A. tournament will enter the playoffs for the National Junior College A.A. championship—According to COACH RUDMAN the Northeastern games will be played somewhere in Connecticut this year — Incidentally, it was a close game in which Penn State nosed out Temple, 7-0, last week—The Lions will face Navy in a major test on Saturday at Baltimore — ELWOOD PETCHEL, State's fleet tailback, may not start in the Lions' backfield due to a knee injury incurred against the Owls last week — Bob Higgins' lads, by the way, are rated eighth in the nation by AP writers—Notre Dame, Michigan, and Penn hold the top three positions—JULIUS FRANZOSA must have been a little self conscious about those orange cards because the very next week they were blue.

We wonder whether MacMILLAN has found a buyer for that Jamaica sport jacket — To those who have seen another similar sport coat about the school, MacMillan states that his coat is entirely different from F. X. FATSIE'S. Fatsie's jacket is on the Southwest Pacific camouflage order.

Well, we have to sign off at this point. See you at the Alumni tilt.

Schedule for week of Nov. 17:

Tue. 3:00 p. m. — Atomic Bums vs. Misfits.
Tue. 4:00 p. m. — Umbrella Shop vs. Heights A. C.
Wed. 3:00 p. m. — Warriors Vs. Rockets.
Wed. 4:00 p. m. — All-Stars vs. Aufgabes.
Thur. 3:00 p. m. — Frenchmen vs. All-Stars.
Fri. 3:00 p. m.—Atomic Bums vs. Engineers.
Fri. 4:00 p. m. — Aufgabes vs. Warriors.
All games are played at the YMCA.

Rudmanites To Face

Alumni November 26

At 8 o'clock Wednesday night, November 26, the charges of Syd Rudman will officially open their cage season with an exhibition game against the HUC Alumni, a team composed of Johnny Apichella, Don Barnes, Al Durbach, Joe Maday and several other former local students.

The game, which is open to the public free of charge, will be played on the hardwood of the A. D. Thomas Memorial Gym, 3rd & Grant streets.
