

Inquiring Reporter

By ANITA GOLDBERG

What Method Would You Suggest To Acquire New Buildings for HUC?

JUELLA McCARTHY, freshman: "Educate the populace of Hazleton to the needs of the buildings and to needs of the college, for it is the children of Hazletonians who are being educated here and they deserve the best possible facilities."

MURRAY ROTHMAN, sophomore: "The college should edit pamphlets and folders stressing the need for education for the Hazleton youth and also giving advantages of a permanent center building to aid the student in regard to travel and financial commitment."

GEORGE DEMSHOCK, freshman:

"Through the local papers keep plugging H. U. C., until Hazletonians are conscious of its need. That would be the greatest help in obtaining suitable buildings."

ROBERT RABRA, freshman: "The school should start a common sense advertising campaign both journalistic and radio. Play upon the business men's fraternities and brotherhoods."

JOSEPH CORTESE, sophomore: "H. U. C. should present a series of concerts and dramatic presentations that would publicize the need for new buildings."

DRAMATIC CLUB WILL PRESENT RADIO PLAY

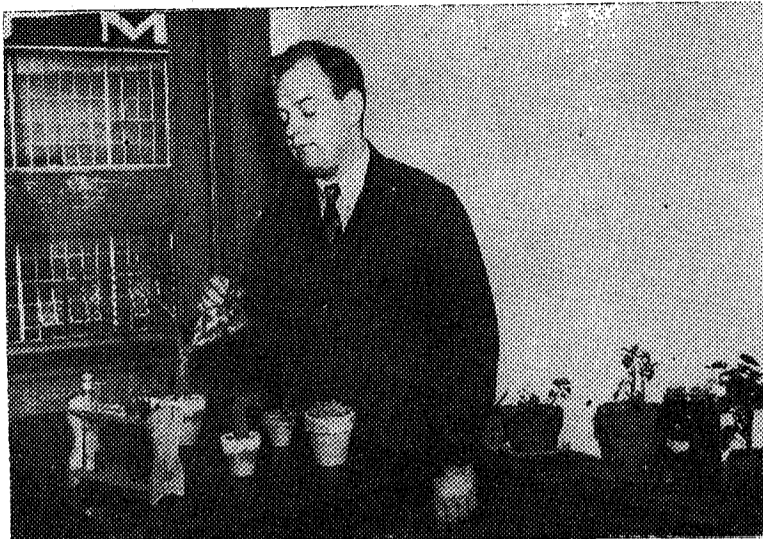

"Luck", a radio drama by Wilbur Daniel Steele will be the first in a series of radio productions to be presented by the Dramatics Club of the Hazleton Undergraduate Center. The play will be given on November 20, at 12:30 p. m. over radio station WAZL in Hazleton, under the direction of Miss Hilda Lee James, instructor of speech and dramatics at the center. Miss James will be assisted by Miss Joy Bonn who will be in charge of the musical background for the production.

"Luck" is a story of suspense, romance, and pathos that takes place in the mountainous region of one of our western states. It is centered around Jennison, the village cripple, and his interpretation of "luck" as compared with that of Yaard, the big, raw-boned and confident beef grower. How this involves the village judge, his daughter, and a group of poker players, is an interesting as well as entertaining story.

The role of Jennison will be played by Dan Wargo, who is familiar to local audiences for his work with the Hazleton Little Theatre. Ray Saul, who is a sophomore majoring in journalism and active in extra-curricular activities will portray the part of Yaard. Hetty, the feminine interest, will be played by Theresa Zogby while the fine supporting cast will include Francis Fatsie, Aaron Marsh, Charles Edwards, Patrick O'Moraskie, and Morris Deitch.

Egotism is the anaesthesia that keeps people on living terms with themselves.

MR. JAMES STEELE

Mr. James Steele, instructor in Botany and Zoology at the Center, inspects a rare specimen of desert plant in his laboratory.

CLUBS TRUMP

By JOE OLIVIA

The DEUTSCHE VEREIN (German Club) held its first in a series of weekly luncheons at Genetti's Coffee Shoppe on November 6 at 12:00 noon — All German language students are welcomed to attend these luncheons.

At meetings of THE MATHEMATICS CLUB on November 3 and 10 all attendance records of the club were shattered. Mr. Levine was the guest speaker for the November 10 meeting.

At the first meeting of the INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB Miss Ruth Steinmeyer, advisor for the club, outlined extensive plans for the forthcoming year — Important international subjects will be on the agenda.

THE PENN STATE THESPIANS OF HUC presented their first in a series of monthly broadcasts over WAZL on October 30 — THE HUC GLEE CLUB under the direction of Miss Garbrick rendered the college songs of outstanding universities in the country — Narration for the program was done by the DRAMATICS CLUB.

The LE CERCLE FRANCAIS (the French Circle) began its organization by electing Dan Switch president.

The International Relations Club held its first meeting in room 17 at noon. James Fischer was acting chairman during the election of club officers. The following students were elected to the following offices:

President: Joseph Fisher.

Vice President and Public Relations Officer: Paul Pucillo.

Secretary and Treasurer: Joella McCarthy.

Doctor Ramsey and Miss Stine-meyer, the club's advisors, were also present.

The body unanimously voted to hold meetings every Monday at noon with one monthly formal meeting. It was also suggested that students should bring their lunch to the meetings.

The topic for next week's discussion will be "The Little Assembly". This subject is of utmost importance to every American citizen so we urge that more students attend the meetings and express their views on the topic. The meetings are open to all students and members of the faculty. Learn what is happening in the world and how it affects you as an American citizen by coming to the meeting.

Out Of Order

By ALBERT SILVERMAN

The world, you advise me, is utterly wrong;

Your life, you assure me, is sad; Whenever we meet you are there with a long

Sad tale of the trouble you've had.

Your rent has been raised and you think it's unfair;

Your boss is a terrible scold; You are losing your money, your mind and your hair;

You are catching a horrible cold.

Your luck is against you, my friend, I can see;

You have reason, I grant, to be blue; But why must you tell all your troubles to me

When I'm dying to tell mine to you?

College Book Store Handles Xmas Gifts

The College Book Store, located in the basement of the Walnut street building, now has a line of college seal jewelry, stationery, and sweat-shirts on sale. There are also personalized paper napkins and matches which make nice Christmas presents. Many extra student helps are also available, including spiral bound notebooks in all sizes, three ring loose leaf binders, notebook paper, and index sheets, reinforcement rings, drawing pencils, and study outlines for review. Drop in at the store between 9 and 12 or 1 and 3 any day but Saturday and look over the stock — you might find many things that will interest you.

You will find College Book Store prices lower than average retail prices.

ALUMNI NEWS

By GEORGE DEMSHOCK

MARY SHERROCK, who spent two semesters at the HUC (1945-1946) is now enrolled at Barnard College of Columbia. Miss Sherrock is very active in both Glee Club and Dramatic Club at Barnard College, as she was while attending the HUC (and HHS).

GEORGE TOMSHO, a former member of the HUC International Relations Club and co-editor of the Collegian, is now attending Swarthmore College. On his recent visit Mr. Tomsho was collecting data for a debate, taking the negative stand, on "The Revision of the United Nations".

RUTH VON BERGEN is continuing her education at Bloomsburg State Teachers College. Miss Von Bergen, who is using her musical background for additional support, regrets that the remaining two years of her education couldn't be had at the HUC.

ALBERT KELLER, who spent four semesters of study here at the HUC, and his brother, DAVID KELLER, who remained here for only two semesters, are enjoying school life at the Penn State Campus. The former will be remembered as president of the Student Council last year, and the latter was also a representative on the Student Council. David Keller is majoring in Sanitary Engineering.

DANIEL BLOSS, a former member of last year's HUC Student Council, is continuing his engineering course at Penn State Campus.

MISS COLLIER, former HUC English instructor, has been made associate professor of English at the Davis and Elkins College, West Virginia.

Daffynitions In Music

By GEORGE DEMSHOCK

Oboe — someone who rides the rails for transportation.

Minor Scale—65 bucks a month.

Mezzo Soprano — when a vocalist doesn't sing right, we say her voice is a mezz.

Bass (pronounced base) — that which there are three of in baseball.

Sonata — Frankie on the Hit Parade.

Tchaikovsky's Fifth — it'll never replace Four Roses.

Song of Scheherazade—something Yvonne DeCarlo made popular.

Math Placement Tests Nov. 17

All students enrolled in the Lower Division of the Penn State College are required to take a mathematics placement test.

The office has no record of the following having done so:

Robert Bast, J. S. Cunning, Joseph Danko, George Demshock, Joseph Matyas, George Paranoc, Adele Pardee, John Planutis, William Pashefko, A. P. Schultz, Ken Vajda, B. Malinowski.

This test will be given Monday, November 17 at 7 p.m. in room W-17 to the above mentioned and all other students who have not taken the test.