

HAZLETON COLLEGIAN

PUBLISHED SEMI-MONTHLY
BY THE STUDENTS OF THE HAZLETON UNDERGRADUATE CENTER

CO-EDITORS Francis Fatsie - Gerald Hassel Sports Editor - - - - Leon Baden Asst. Sport Editor - - - Raymon Saul Feature Editor - - - - Daniel Wargo Society Editor - - - - Grace McBride Club Reporter - - - - Joe Olivia Staff Photographer - - - Wilson Barto	Literary Editor - - - Bernard Dvorschak STAFF WRITERS George Demshock, Ralph Kline, June Reinmiller, Jim Fisher, Hugh Close, Ray Phillips, Marguerite Rondish, Guy O'Hazza, Anita Goldberg, I. Smith, Charles Maurer, E. Kostic.
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

LOFTY AIMS FOR N.S.A.

In September, 1947, on the campus of the University of Wisconsin at Madison, Wisconsin, there was launched the United States National Student Association. Some 750 delegates representing 1,389,000 students in 356 leading colleges and universities throughout the United States met there to plan a dynamic and comprehensive program of activities to be carried out on the individual campuses represented there. The aims and purposes of this permanent organization are beautifully expressed in the preamble to the constitution, "We, the students of the United States of America, desiring to maintain academic freedom and student rights, to stimulate and improve democratic student governments, to develop better educational standards, facilities, and teaching methods, to improve student cultural, social and physical welfare, to promote international understanding and fellowship, to guarantee to all people, because of their inherent dignity as individuals, equal rights and possibilities for primary, secondary and higher education regardless of sex, race, religion, political beliefs or economic circumstances, to foster the recognition of the rights and responsibilities of students to the school, the community, humanity, and God, and to preserve the interests and integrity of the government and Constitution of the United States of America, do hereby establish this Constitution of the United States National Student Association."

The Pennsylvania regional conference of the USNSA was held at the Pennsylvania State College December 19 to 21, 1947. The Hazleton Undergraduate Center was represented there by sophomores Patricia Kringe and Gladys Lorah. This time the regional conference was held in conjunction with the annual convention of the National Student Government Association, and Sophomore Frank Lucia represented HUC there.

To The Faculty And Students

During the recent semester it has been my privilege to serve as president of the college council and the sophomore class. On several occasions, I have been approached by members of both groups for information concerning the council activities. This shows definite interest in school activities — an indispensable characteristic of any growing institution.

It is only through this medium that all council members, as well as class officers, are aware of your desires. If you have something to say, tell it to student representatives, so that we may be better able to serve you in the future.

Frank Lucia

The Editor's Dilemma

Getting out a newspaper is fun, but it's no picnic.

If we print jokes people say we are silly. If we don't they say we are too serious.

If we clip things from other newspapers, we are too lazy to write them ourselves.

If we don't, we are too fond of our own stuff.

If we don't print contributions we don't appreciate true genius.

If we do print them, the page is filled with junk.

Now, like as not, some one will say we swiped this from some other newspaper—we did.

DID YOU NOTICE?

BOBBY LATZ'S craving for candy?

TOMMY STRIKE'S dimples

BOB THOMAS' speedy manipulation of the slide rule?

JUNE "RED" REINMILLER'S fancy for cherry crumb pie?

FRANK LUCIA'S ability to make H.U.C.'s affairs successful?

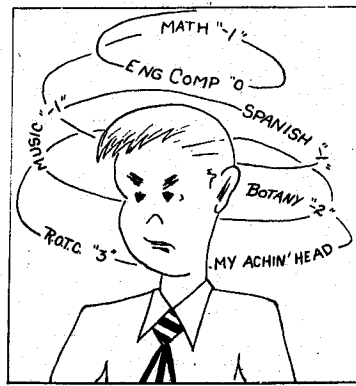

MARGIE SWEITZER'S love for pinochle?

MR. LEVINE'S skill no skates?

JOE OLIVIA'S aptitude for playing jazz on the piano?

SERGEANT VASKO'S support for our basketball team?

Guess Who?

The Case Of The Missing Ash Trays

In the past it has been proven that the average American is the greatest souvenir hunter in the world. This has been found to be especially true for the G. I.'s during the past war and as the Student Council has noticed, HUC is blessed with several of these average Americans. In the not so reasonable facsimile of a game room, half of the ashtrays provided for the students' convenience have managed to sprout legs and creep into someone's pockets. Unofficial reports have it that one of these glass ash trays dropped from a student's pocket while at the Broad Street Building. So any students who are having sleepless nights, suffering from nervousness and indigestion, try returning those ash trays and see the difference it will make.

Keep 'Em Rolling

It's all right to stand like a rock, but don't let yourself get covered by moss. —Anonymous

HUC Women's Events

Every college has its lighter side, and now that blue books are nearly over, and long faces are shrinking back to their original size, we can take time to review the past semester of women's events.

First on the list was the election of sorority officers. Gladys Lorah was voted president of the body. Teacups, or rather orchids, go to the sophomore women who acted as hostesses at a tea given for the freshman women and faculty members.

Next on the calendar was a pledge party given by the sophomores at which the freshmen women were given pledge ribbons and regulations for initiation. As entertainment, Truth and Consequences was played and Mary Ellen McHugh surprised the group when she answered an unusually difficult question.

In the line of music and dramatics, Alice Lanyon and Jane Kenvin continued to play a major role while Theresa Zogby joined the ranks as a very favorable recruit.

A girls' basketball team was organized recently, and the girls chose Pat Kringe as captain while Margaret Kohler accepted the position of referee. The girls played in an intramural game on Tuesday evening and will open the league on Saturday when they play West Hazleton Alumni.

Two sophomore women, Margaret Switzer and Marguerite Rondish, both majoring in Medical Technology, are leaving for the campus in February. To these two and to all classmates leaving, we wish the best of luck.

INQUIRING REPORTER

By ANITA GOLDBERG

The approach of the end of the current semester and the subsequent transfer of many students to the campus prompts our inquiry into those things departing students might miss most. Questioning some representative students we received many answers in both a serious and humorous vein.

What Are You Going To Miss Most When You Leave HUC in February?

FRANCIS FATSIE:

"I'm going to miss the many friends and acquaintances I have made here and the intimate student-faculty relationships which exist here at HUC."

CAROLYN MARGWARTH:

"I will surely miss all the faculty, students and office girls when I leave HUC. I will also miss seeing the HUC basketball games, especially against York."

RAMON SAUL:

"Without a doubt I can say what I will miss most of all here at HUC is the many friends that I have made during my stay here. I like people, but I like them better when I know them well. Being a student here has enabled me to know many people very well that I might not have met otherwise. Being an individual rather than a number is also something that I will miss. What I mean by this is, that at the campus (as in the Navy) I will be tossed into a sea of thousands of faces. I will not know a vast majority of those people and they will not know me. In addition to all this, leaving a good home and good meals is not entirely to my liking."

THOMAS CACCESE:

"I'm going to miss the good friends who bought numbers and football pools from me. I wish to announce that all future transactions during my absence will be handled by Leon Baden and Jimmy Fisher."

GUY O'HAZZA:

"I know I shall miss the congenial atmosphere that prevails here and all the social gatherings that really brought the gang together."

ROBERT CLEMENS:

"Leaving HUC will mean leaving the many good friendships I have acquired here and the parties I have attended. Most of all I'm going to miss Emmitt's Coffee Shop with its friendly atmosphere."

MARGARET SCHWIETZER:

"I'm sure I'm going to miss the people I got to know and liked and the feeling of oneness in the classes, also the close relationships between the teachers and students."