2 More Teachers Assigned To HUC

Attorney Richard Bigelow of this city, who was admitted to practice before the Luzerne county courts last year, is instructing a class in Political Science at the Undergraduate Center.

Miss Lois Neifert of Tamaqua has come from the Pennsylvania State College to take over Mr. E. Wallace McMullen's Engl. Comp. 0 and Engl. Comp. 5 classes. McMullen has replaced Marion Joy Bonn, former instructor in Comp. 5 and Lit.

The appointment of the local attorney to the HUC faculty relieves a shortage of instructors in the social science department of the school.

A graduate of Swarthmore, Bigelow taught at the Pennsylvania State College in 1936-37 where he received his MA degree. Before acquiring his Bachelor of Law degree from Dickinson School of Law, he taught at that college, and NROTC at Northwestern University.

Attorney Bigelow has not only applied his study of Political Science to teaching, but also his other major, Law, through his various activities in government expansion programs. Among the organizations in which he participated were the Pennsylvania Planning Board, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and Carlisle, Pa., Planning and Joining Commission.

ROTC MEMBERS USING GEISSLER PISTOL RANGE

The management of the Geissler Knitting Mills, City, has sanctioned the use of 2 rifle ranges located in the basement of the establishment, by the college ROTC for the purpose of marksmanship training.

The range, designed for the use of small bore weapons such as twenty-two rifles or pistols, will be used by the ROTC members on Saturdays.

The first two hour drill was held last week when Sgt. John Vasko supervised the initial ten members of the sixty-man ROTC.

FISHING COURSE

Thursday, George Harvey, nationally-known fisherman, will begin a six weeks' course at the Broad Street building for regional anglers.

CHEER FOR THE TEAM

Blessed are the joymakers,
—N. P. Willis

PLEASE — DO NOT SMOKE

Faculty Members and Administration Heads ask that students refrain from smoking in the classrooms and first floor hall.

Smoking is permitted in the basement.

Intra-Mural Table Tennis Tournament Begins Wednesday

Syd Rudman announced this weekend that the Penn Center Intra-Mural Table Tennis Tournament will begin Wednesday at the local YMCA.

The tournament matches are to be determined on the standard of the best two out of three series; however, the finals will be based on the best out of five series.

Mattern, Seibel On Jr. College Board

Richard Mattern, HUC official, has been named Secretary-Treasurer of the Pennsylvania Junior College Athletic Association for the ensuing year. Mattern did much to coordinate the successful basketball tournament held in February.

In conjunction with Mattern's position on the board, Mr. Arthur Seibel, HUC publicity director and instructor of English, has been named Public Relations manager for the PJCAA.

BLUEBOOK BLUES?

Louisa M. Alcott said:
That is a good book, it seems to me, which is opened with expectation and closed with profit.

There have been twelve new record albums added to the music room record library.

ALUMNI NEWS

CARMELLA LIO, one of the young ladies in the Hemlock Chain in last year's May Queen Program at HUC, is now located at the Penn State Campus majoring in Sociology. Miss Lio is a member of the Center and Newman Clubs.

ELINOR MORAWSKI, a member of the Student Council and a participant in the May Queen Program during her three semester stay here at HUC, is now majoring in Science at the Penn State Campus. Miss Morawski is a member of the Center Club at the present time.

KATHRYN "KITTY" YURICK is continuing her Chemistry course at the Penn State Campus. Miss Yurick was a student for three semesters at the HUC.

A note of thanks should be given to CAROLINE KARCHNER who is keeping us at HUC very well supplied with Alumni News from the Penn State Campus. Miss Karchner is active in the Center, Swimming, and Rifle Clubs at the Campus, took flying instructions at Bloomsburg, and toured Mexico last summer. Knitting, drawing, and Stan Morris take up all other time not used in studies or extra-curricular activities.

Riley Named to Dubois All-Opponent Five

Johnny Riley, captain of HUC's junior college 1947-48 state champs, was named to an all-opponent team picked by Coach Egli and members of the DuBois U.C. basketball team. Others on the first squad were York Junior College's aces, Bock and Biros, and Miller and Fisher of Schuylkill U.C.

Receiving mention for their noteworthy court performances were "Pistol Pete" Garber and Statz Laganosky of HUC.
