

Spring Schedules Are Being Planned

During this week the first part of the student body scheduled to plan their course programs for the spring semester has conferred with Assistant and Administrative Head Frank Kostos.

The remaining two weeks of the program are:

Next week — all second semester students and first semester liberal arts students.

Week of December 13 — all first semester students, except those taking liberal arts.

Next week, also, the members of the student body who are eligible for transfer to the main campus at State College in February are to confer with Amos Goss, administrative head.

Student Lounge Condition Is Council Topic

Conditions in the student lounge in the basement of the Walnut Street building were discussed by the College Council at this week's meeting. Some action had been taken by last year's group and the present officials are planning to investigate possibilities of improving the room. John Parvensky and Art Edstrom have been appointed investigators.

Also accepted was a plan to present honorary college "membership cards" to some of Hazleton's prominent citizens. This will permit the holder to attend college sporting and social functions as a guest of the school.

The December drive for sale of Disabled Veteran Forget-Me-Nots in the school will be sponsored also by the council. It is planned to have the flowers sold in the school library. Edstrom made this suggestion.

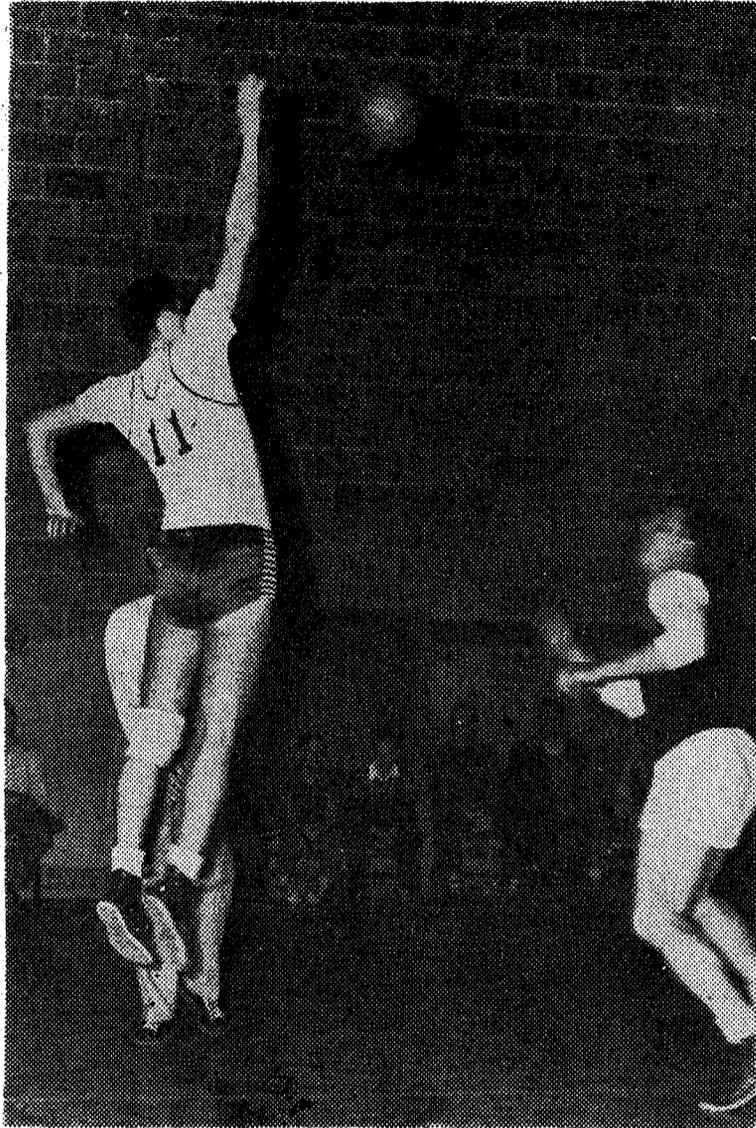

The date for the Christmas semi-formal, December 17, was approved and the group heard a report from President Bob Rinkus, Secretary Joyce Schofield, Treasurer Art Edstrom, Dolores McGee and John Parvensky, delegates to the recent inter-school conference in Altoona.

IMPORTANT MEETING

On Thursday, December 9, there will be an important meeting for all married students at the Center in room W-17 at 4 p.m.

MATH CLUB MEETS

The film, "Introduction to Vectors," will be shown December 14 when the Math Club meets in Room 2, Walnut Street building. Engineering students are invited.

Two cage standouts met on opposing teams last Wednesday when Pete Garber and Statz Laganosky, now on the main campus, played in the Hazleton Center's opening game. Laganosky, who played with the alumni team, didn't make the jump. The locals took a 64-48 victory from last year's team mates.

Hucsters Point To Pottsville Game Tomorrow

After a fine showing in defeating the Hazleton Center alumni a week ago Wednesday, the basketball minded students of Coach Syd Rudman are well prepared to keep the ball rolling and to go on to another successful season.

The locals will meet the Pottsville Center team tomorrow night in the Pottsville High School gym with whistle time set for 7:30 o'clock. The return game will be played here February 23.

The Potters are coached by Irwin Kochel who believes he has some great talent among his nineteen candidates. He is somewhat undecided as to his starting team but it will be centered around Jack Curry, a last season standout. Other possibilities are Vince Markowski or Frankie Rambo in the other guard slot, Roger Derr or Bob Snyder in the

(Continued on page 2)

December Question

The question of the month is, "What will it be for milady?" Maybe it will be orchids to you! What is all this leading up to . . . ? Just this—

Plans have been completed for the junior college's annual Christmas semi-formal to be held December 17. The project is being promoted by the Activities Board.

Students are reminded to circle the date and to watch the bulletin board for later announcements concerning the dance. A grand time and pleasant surprises are in store for all who attend the gala affair.

Intra-Mural Schedule

Tonight at the A. D. Thomas Memorial School gym, Fourth and Grant streets—

6:30: Warriors vs. Fireballs.

7:1: Engineers vs. Pros.

8:00: Defenders vs. Umbrella Shop.

Office Announces First Honor Roll

Charles Miller is on top scholastically for the first eight weeks of the current semester, according to an announcement made this week by the office. Miller has attained an average of 3.00.

Nancy Baran and Jean Lovrinic are following closely Miller's record with scores of 2.81. The other members on the top nine group are: B. S. Yurick, P. Corazza, A. Lorenzoni, Dave McNelis, R. A. Makofski and E. C. Sword.

Another 27 students have achieved first half semester marks to place them on the lower part of the roll with averages between 2.41 and 2.

These are J. Adams, W. C. Stone, Joella McCarty, June Reinmiller, G. Scheers, Con Balliet, Joan Eidelman, G. E. Lenyo, M. D. Underwood, A. Roasen.

H. Klemic, Lawrence Drabick, Nancy Byorick, Anita Goldberg, S. Pasda, J. P. Wersinger, T. C. Geary, Jr., A. W. Snyder, G. C. Sarkis, A. Stanziola.

John Baker, N. DiBonifazio, W. E. Klinessmith, J. M. Prete, T. H. Salinsky, R. J. Thomas and T. T. Watkins.

Engineers Will Tour Bell Office

The members of the college Engineers Club will make a tour of the Bell Telephone building on West Green street next Tuesday and Wednesday. The groups will be taken on the tour both days starting at 9 a.m. Students not club members who would like to take part in the tour are asked to contact Instructor Joseph Pavone.

Thursday night the club's regular meeting will be held with Roland Edmunds, of the Pennsylvania Power and Light Company, as main speaker. His subject will deal with "Electric Utilities."

All engineering students are invited to the meeting, which will start at 7:15 o'clock in Room 1 of the Broad Street building. Refreshments will be served.

First Program

The first in a weekly series of music appreciation broadcasts by Miss Miss Pearl Garbrick, music instructor here, was made Wednesday night over Station WAZL. The story and music of Handel's "Mesaiah" was aired.

The programs are a half hour in length and are produced at 10:30 on Wednesday nights. Bob Sacco, center student and WAZL announcer, is assisting on the program.