

TAXATION BUT NO REPRESENTATION

On the front page of the paper is a story that should interest every student at the Center who paid an activity fee, especially the sophomores. The activity fee which you pay is pooled with every other student's to pay for the expenses of college activities. But just how much should be allotted to one particular social affair is another proposition. That is decided by members of the Council which you elected.

However, due to three vacancies in the sophomore class wing, the sophomores have only one representative in their ranks. The Council has made it quite clear that no election will be conducted unless the students demand it!

At the last meeting of Council a suggestion was made to cut all "unnecessary" expenses even more this semester than the past one. Is that O. K. with you, sophomores? Your representative expressed her opinion that not all of you think the same way. There is action in unity. Now is the time for you to speak up unless it makes no difference what Council does with your money. Your representative wants to know.

SHOULD SEE ADVISER

Many students who failed subjects might have prevented such misfortune if they had only seen their advisers. For the convenience of the students, advisers have been posted on the bulletin board but heedless students paid no attention.

Advisers are appointed and are willing to help the student with any problem he might have. If he is failing, the adviser tries to plan his work with him so that he can pull his grades up. At the four-weeks marking it would prove fruitful for many doubtful students to go in to their counselors and see how their grades stand.

AN OPEN LETTER

What is "School Spirit?" That is the question I'm asking the student body of our Hazleton Undergraduate Center.

The cheerleading squad is only as good as the student body makes it. We tried to build up the school spirit this season. I think we did succeed a little bit. It was very gratifying to have a crowd respond so well and willingly.

We have a championship basketball team this year and I'll bet 85% haven't even seen them play one game. Yes we do have a gang of school spirited fans but that isn't enough support. We need everyone to help the Hucsters carry our college to fame.

Now let us introduce the members of the team who worked hard during the season to keep the good reputation of the Center.

First of all we have "Pete" Garber who takes the major role both offensively and defensively; he is relieved by "Whitey" Gerhard. At the forward positions we have "Bill" Gardner and "Satch" Kostick who play bang-up games. These two boys are assisted by Brice Martin and "Chichie" Lamonica. At our guard positions "Jackie" Sipple and "Swish" Talerovich play hard ball with their sensational basket markers. Petcavich and Makofsky come to their aid.

Our sport season of 1948-1949 is almost over but we still have our most important games to play.

On March 4 and 5 the team will go to DuBois for the PJCAA Tournament. In order to have a winning team give the boys your word of confidence and encouragement.

I'm sure the basketeers of the Hazleton Penn State Center will carry home the championship trophy this year so—

Good luck!
Captain of Cheerleaders,
Grace Heppie

COMMENTS ON DANCE

Favorable comments were heard following the Valentine Dance which was held at Genetti's. The gay Valentines hanging from the ceiling evidenced the work done by the people on the Activities Board. They are also deserving of all the sincere remarks passed along later about the cozy and inviting atmosphere Genetti's affords.

THREE LITTLE WORDS

According to a recent survey the sweetest trios of words in the English language are:

I love you.
Dinner is served.
All is forgiven.
Sleep till noon.
Keep the change.
Here's that fiver.

And the saddest:
Buy me one.
Out of gas.
Dues not paid.
Funds not sufficient.
External use only.
Rest in peace.

Offer Awards To Women, Writers

Scholarships for Women

One of the oldest liberal arts colleges for women in the country, Western College at Oxford, Ohio, is offering five $1,000 trustee scholarships. Each amount to $500 a year for two years and are available to students of recognized junior colleges, who will be graduated in June, 1949, and wish to enter Western College in September.

Awards will be made to the five highest ranking candidates as determined by scholastic achievement, character, health and general intellectual and social interests.

For information write: Director of Admissions, Western College, Oxford, Ohio.

National Five Arts Award

The National Five Arts Award, Inc., has extended the closing date of its contests to July 31st, 1949, to give student-writers additional time to complete work-in-progress and to polish scripts recently completed.

Sam Wanamaker said that the 140 fellowships at $500 each would be a great incentive to writers and particularly to students in creative writing classes. In addition to the $100,000 in awards, it offers for play, radio scripts, short and short short stories, motion-picture synopses and popular songs, to arrange for the professional production, publication and broadcasts of all prize-winning scripts.

Requests for information, rules and regulations should be addressed to the National Five Arts Award, Inc., 715 Fifth Avenue, New York 22, N. Y.

Paintings On Display At Masonic Temple

Arthur Carpenter has announced that the Art League is exhibiting the paintings of an internationally known Dutch painter, Rulof, now at the Masonic Temple on Church and Green streets.

The gallery is open every weekday from 7:30 until 9:30 and Saturdays and Sundays from 3 to 5 in the afternoon. The paintings will be exhibited until February 27. All students and particularly art students are urged not to miss this opportunity to see Rulof's paintings.

There was a line, a mighty line
Before the lunchroom door,
And Willie, waiting for his lunch
Was number Twenty-four.
But number Three had twelve good friends,
And number Eight, eleven,
And Willie found to his surprise
He now was Forty Seven.
And tho the people far up front
Were moving quite a lot
The longer Willie stood in line
The farther back he got.
This struck the boy as mighty silly
But lunchtime never came for Willie.

THOUGHTS IN THE BREEZE

Beverly Silverman

Hi, all. All good things must end, and so it was with our wonderful ten-day semester vacation. Now we are back with hopes of making threes. One can dream, can't one

Welcome to all new students at Hazleton Center and welcome back all students who have survived from last semester. It is nice to see your smiling faces.

As anyone can tell you, it's "what you do with what you got." So for the few remaining months that we will have in our present buildings, let's do just that. If we are not so fortunate to have Highacres as our future home, then plans would be made to liven up the lounge.

Did you hear that Janet S. spent the last weekend in Philadelphia? Miss Margaret Wood flew home to Boston last weekend to attend a wedding. Who is it that fouled Polly up when she was given wax for candy?

Here is the luck of the Irish: Cissy McGee lost her wallet at Thomas' on the way to the Keystone game; however after Coach Syd Rudman phoned from Keystone, Cissy was assured that it will be waiting for her after the game. Certainly was a good excuse to stop on the way back home.

What is this about Brice Martain following the footsteps of Magellan in navigation Brice was the navigator on the basketball trip to Keystone Junior College.

While the team has lost Squirrely for manager, he tries to attend most of the games chaperoned by his cute little sister. Watch for it! H.U.C.'s basketball team had their pictures taken for the city newspapers. Incidentally Pete Garber and Swish Talerovich have been elected co-captains for the team. Congratulations, fellas.

In one of the Comp. 5 classes Mooney states he is in love.

Hidden talents? Expose them. What do you say, J.S.? The Collegian can use your original cartoons and poems.

I am sure that Delores Lee, one of last semester's cheerleaders, has the best wishes of all her friends for a speedy recovery.

If you want to buy, sell or lend books, cars or whatever the case may be, let us know by putting an ad in the classified section of this paper. This is another accommodation to you free of charge. Deposit your ad in the Collegian office; someone is always there.

On behalf of the student body the Collegian is extending congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Mattern on their recent marriage.

Former Center student Frank Fatsie won a state-wide contest with a one-act play. His piece was chosen from 3000 entered.

The Nittany Lion, a stone monument on the campus sculpted by Warneke, once again has suffered at the hands of malicious vandals; they poured a can of red paint over his head and front paws.

Sports editor Stan Caughey and reporter John Maher of the Standard-Sentinel, local newspaper, enrolled at the Center in February.

The first year the Hazleton Undergraduate Center was established it had a library of three volumes.
