

Club Doings

The Chemistry Club met on Tuesday evening at the Broad Street building. At this meeting Freshman Cissy McGee was elected vice-president. A committee, consisting of Bernard Carr, Myron Schmutzer, Mary Ellen McHugh and Don Kump, was selected to prepare a program for the spring semester. An interesting movie, "Frontiers of the Future," was shown and discussed. At the next meeting which will be held March 8 a systematic qualitative analysis is temporarily scheduled.

The first meeting of the Spanish Club for the spring semester will be held on Wednesday, March 2, at the Walnut Street building at 7:30. Spanish movies will be selected for future meetings. Games, skits and refreshments will be available to all who attend.

Two films, one on Poland and the other on India, were shown to a group of students at the Sandwich Cinema Hour on Wednesday. The S.C.H. is a bi-monthly presentation of your International Relations Club. The club discussed civil war in China at the last meeting. Next week Poland and India will be the topics for discussion.

The Mathematics Club has not met this semester as yet. Watch the bulletin board for announcements concerning this club.

Recently the French Club officers held a meeting concerning the election of a representative to the student council. The basic outlines of the club's activities for the spring semester were also discussed. Student members are asked to take note of the bulletin board for the time and date of the first meeting.

A newly formed Radio Club met on Tuesday at the Broad Street building. The club is sponsored by Mr. Gilbert Ward. Anyone interested is urged to contact Mr. Ward at his earliest convenience. No previous knowledge of radio is required.

The Schnitzelbankverein has decided to join the German Youth Activities (GYA) project of the Youth Helps Youth program under the direction of Lt. Col. Robert C. Hall of the U. S. Army Occupation Forces. This project operates through correspondence between American and German youth groups of similar size, age and education. Its purpose is to bring the German youth in personal contact with American ideals through letters telling how we live and work

National Campus Beauty Search Seeks "Miss All-American College Freshman"

As part of the world premiere program for its forthcoming technicolor comedy, "Mother is a Freshman," Twentieth Century-Fox is offering $100 in cash to the freshman gal whose beauty and talent qualify her for the title, "Miss All-American College Freshman."

The national search grew out of a poll taken by Twentieth Century-Fox some weeks ago when more than 200 college newspaper editors were asked to name the twelve schools where the greatest concentration of feminine pulchritude could be found. The lucky winner will also have the opportunity to win the grand prize of a one-week trip to Hollywood during the summer vacation recess.

BREAK STREAK WITH TWO LOSSES

The Swarthmore Center Five, the first team to inflict a defeat upon the Hucsters, arrived in Hazleton Feb. 9 with the intention of making it two straight. But they were completely outplayed and outclassed as the Hucsters went on a scoring spree in the second half to rout the nearly Philadelphians 97-52.

Overconfidence almost spelled defeat for the Rudmanites as they eased out a 77 to 69 victory over the Keystone Center on Feb. 11., on the Scranton court in an extra period. Peter Garber and Jack Sipple provided the needed punch that enabled the locals to turn back the home team for the second time this season.

Altoona suppressed a late Hazletonian rally to nose out the Rudmanites 59 to 57 in the A.D. Thomas gym Feb. 15.

On the short end of a 32 to 24 score at the halftime, the Hucsters led by Billy Gardner and Chicky Lamonica came fighting back to knot the score at 44 all and then go on to grasp a slight edge. However, Altoona, who needed to win to assure themselves of a berth in the playoffs, wrested the lead in the closing minutes and managed to keep two points ahead until the final gun. Gardner was high man with 22 points.

Education is a conquest, not a bequest; it cannot be given, it must be achieved. The value of an education lies not in its possession but in the trouble to secure it.

—Hubbert

At a party there is always rum for one more.

—Poe

under a democracy. Each and every American group may be considered an ambassador of our way of life.

The club met on February 16 and on February 22 to decide plans for their first March meeting to be held on March 2 at the home of George Scheers in Hartland Park. Plans were also discussed for an outing with the campus German club some weekend early in May.

The continuing officers of the Schnitzelbankverein for this semester are: President, George Scheers; Vice-president, Jean Lovrinic; Secretary, H. Zelkoski; Treasurer, Arthur Koch.

So wide and divergent were the opinions that it was decided to throw the contest open to those schools which would be representative of each part of the country. Penn State has been selected as one of the competing colleges.

Lew Stone, editor of the campus Collegian, has informed the Hazleton Collegian that all the centers will have a nominee. The winner in each center will participate in the final elimination to select the representative of Penn State in the national contest.

Watch the bulletin board for further details of the nominating and election procedures. Information will be posted during the next few days and entry blanks will be available.

SPORTSTUFF

By DICK BAGBY

Ray Kostick

Ray Kostick, the ever-alert basketballer who supplies his followers with a thrill a minute, names Beaver Meadows as the one and only place for him.

Ray is six feet tall and sends the scale indicator spinning to the 180 mark. He was a member of the 1948 graduating class, Freeland, Penna., where he was active in basketball, baseball and football.

Throughout the day it seems that everyone somehow or other notices Ray with his crew haircut and attractive attire and seeks to congratulate him on his brilliant offensive play when he pulled down a grand total of 44 points in a tilt with the Hershey five.

Pottsville Swamped

The Center quintet unleashed another high-powered attack Wednesday night to overwhelm the Pottsville invaders with a score of 84-58.

Peter Garber was high for the home club with seventeen markers. Kluba and Lasavage were high for Pottsville with fourteen and twelve points respectively.

Ossie Prokopic's Jayvee squad atoned for their previous defeat by Pottsville by knocking off the Pottsville Jayvees in the preliminary game 45-23.

York Tomorrow

The Hucsters will bring down the curtain on another successful basketball season tomorrow night when they travel to York, Pa., to engage the second place York Junior College quintet in the last scheduled league game. This game, however, is the one termed by many as the one to see. The forces of Syd Rudman repelled the Yorkites 79 to 71 in a previous entanglement at the local gymnasium.

HUCsters Defend Title At Dubois

On March 4 and 5 the Rudmanites journey to Dubois to participate in the PJCAA Tournament. The tournament last year, which was held in Hazleton, was won by the Center five. The newly elected co-captains, Pete Garber and Swish Talerovich, will lead the team in the defense of their title.

The other participating teams will be: York Junior College, Altoona Center and the Dubois Center. The first scheduled games will find Hazleton matched against the third place team in the first game Friday night. In the second game the second and fourth place teams will battle it out. On the following evening the winners of the previous games will vie for the championship.

Teachers Upset In Charity Game

In a game played for the benefit of the March of Dimes at the Weatherly High court Saturday night the strong Center quintet climbed all over the Bloomsburg STC Jayvees and emerged with a 69-43 triumph. The contest, witnessed by more than 500 regional basketball followers, was the main feature of the double header.

After taking the lead in the early stages of the encounter, the Center combination seemed invincible and shrugged off every attempt made by the teachers.

"Pistol Pete" Garber continued to lead the attack of the blue and white by hitting the nets for twenty points. Ray Kostick, another Center dependable, employed his shooting accuracy and contributed sixteen points to the total. Some expert ball-handling and defensive work was displayed by "Bill" Gardner. The capable set-shot artist of the teachers, Al Degates, connected for five goals from the foul line to prove himself the only threat for the opposition.

In a previous encounter between these two squads, the Center five was victorious.

CLASSIFIED ADS

LOST. Book which belongs to school library, "Saints and Sinners." Return to Ken Minchin.

STUDENTS with sedans who wish to take riders to Pennsylvania Junior College Basketball Tournament in DuBois March 4 and 5 for a nominal fee, please see Syd Rudman. Students wishing rides to the tournament and who are willing to share expenses see Syd Rudman as soon as possible.

WANTED. A loyal and enthusiastic student body to support our defending champions at the Basketball Tournament at DuBois March 4 and 5.

She: "You deceived me before our marriage. You told me you were well off."

He: "I was but I did not know it."

—Froth

Then there was the girl who soaked her strapless evening gown in coffee so it would stay up all night.

—Froth