

Students Agog Over Goss' Resignation

Frank C. Kostos Named Temporary Administrative Head

Council Replenished

Jane Margwarth and Henry Daniels, sophomores at the Center, and Joseph Hastings and Bill Deppe, freshmen, were elected to Student Council replacing John Zamba, Kathleen Midash, Robert Barrett, and Mary Jane Allen. Henry Giuliani, vice-president of the Freshman class, automatically moved up to the office of vice-president of the Student Council because of the transferring to the main campus of Jack Reinhart, president of the Freshman class.

The recently-elected Council members advocated a continuance of the policies proposed by the Campus Reformers and Pennacrats in the Fall semester elections. At that time these parties swept all Council offices with the exception of two seats. However, the Spring semester elections were characterized by little name-calling, no band-playing, and practically no advertisement with the exception of a few freshmen hand cards and posters.

Student Body Meets

On February 22, the first meeting of the student body was held in B-101, at which time Mr. Kostos spoke. He assured the students that he knew they all had gripes and wanted certain things done. He told them that if they would just be patient until he got things organized, he would take care of their gripes if it were possible.

Co-operation Proposed

Ralph Kreckler, Arthur Carpenter, Frederick Ciletti, Edward McGee, Henry Daniels, and Henry Giuliani will probably comprise the student-faculty board of Operation Co-operation. This board will resemble the Student-Faculty Board of recent years, and its purpose will be to coordinate better feelings between the students and the faculty to settle all controversial issues that cannot be solved by Student Council.

Mr. Kreckler, one of the members of the board, has expressed his feelings about the organization of Operation-Co-operation in the following statement:

"The recent succession of events which resulted in a change of administration in our Center has left all of us, students and faculty, with a feeling that there is a need for us to reset our sights and revamp our objectives. We are suddenly aware that each of us has some responsibility to bear and a definite position in the Center family.

All of us are eager to do our bit as mature individuals toward making our stay here a pleasant one, and toward making this the best Center of all in the eyes of everyone. Let's get behind our student and faculty leaders and serve when we are called upon to serve. Even though all of us

Frank C. Kostos

Mr. Frank C. Kostos has moved up from the job of Assistant Administrative Head to become temporary Administrative Head of the H.U.C.

Mr. Kostos received his Bachelor of Science Degree from Bucknell University in 1930, and his M.S. in Math from the same institution in 1939.

He began his teaching career at Mount Carmel High School in 1934, remaining there until 1941. During that time he maintained the positions of football and basketball coach and faculty manager of athletics.

In 1941, Mr. Kostos left Mount Carmel to teach at Brown Vocational School in Wilmington, Delaware. In 1944, he moved to Valley Forge Military Academy, remaining there one semester before coming to the Hazleton Center.

During his stay here he has served as school registrar as well as Assistant Administrative Head.

Prehatny Elected Chairman ROTC Ball

Cadet Captain John Prehatny was elected General Chairman of the Army-Air R.O.T.C. ball to be held at Hotel Altamont on April 20.

Various committees were organized with Cadet Lieutenant Harold Filbert heading the Decorations and Refreshments Committee. Cadet 1st Lieutenant Lewis Giuliani, chairman of the Entertainment and Publicity Committee, and Cadet Master Sergeant James Taylor in charge of tickets.

Aiding these committee chairmen are: Cadet Captain Burt Hall, Cadet 1st Lieutenants Frank Thomsen, George Jonovich, Gerald Troy, Emil Hutnyan, and Cadet 1st Sergeant Robert Matchick.

may not be able to make definite positive contributions in the days ahead, we can cooperate as members of the same family. As we keep the ball rolling for old Penn State, let Operation Co-operation be our byword."

126 Students Pledge $1,207.89

The Student Committee for the Gymnasium Drive announced on February 23, that 126 students pledged $1207.89 to the Activities-Gymnasium Drive. Included in this amount is a miscellaneous $35 which was collected for the gymnasium last year.

The Women's Organization also donated $35 to the drive, their making the total $1242.89. This money was obtained through profits gained from a bake sale conducted in Deisroth's Department Store on December 13. As the Collegian went to press, the Women's Organization was the only club to contribute to the drive.

Since the students have pledged their money, there has been controversy over how the pledge money should be paid. Betty Harlor, who replaced William Koehler, transfer student to the main campus as chairman of the Student Committee, announced that all monthly payments will be made at the bookstore the Monday following the first Saturday of each month. The following dates have been selected: March 5, April 9, May 7, and June 4.

The committee responsible for soliciting the students consists of the following members: Lewis Giuliani, Jane Margwarth, Henry Giuliani, Joseph Hastings, Harold Borushok, Walter Kramer, Bernard Rachilla, Carl Christopher, Mary Lou Gagliardi, John Prehatny, and Betty Harlor.

Not all the students have been contacted about the drive, and there are still some pledge cards that have not been returned to the committee. However, these students and the new students who registered in February will be contacted by student committee members.

German Club Skates At Split Rock Lodge

On Sunday, February 11, the German Club held a tobogganing and ice skating party at Split Rock Lodge in the Poconos. The trip was made by car, furnished by Miss Erlemann, D. Billig, F. Fellin, and G. Martini.

Those members present were Miss Erlemann, advisor of the German Club, Miss Yannes, Frank Thompsen, Joe McHale, Gene Martini, Tel Gilroy, Frank Fellin, Carl Christopher,

Amos A. Goss

FEB. 20 — All the students in the Hazleton Center are ignorant of the reason or reasons for Amos Goss' resigning. No information could be ascertained, but a campus report on the matter is expected soon.

Amos A. Goss, resigned Administrative Head of H.U.C., received his B.S. in civil engineering at Penn State in '39.

Upon graduation from Penn State, Mr. Goss received a position with the Dept. of Grounds and Bldgs., Penn State college. In 1940 he affiliated himself with the New York, Chicago and St. Louis railway, remaining there until mid-1941, whereupon he chose to become an engineering instructor at Keystone Junior College in Scranton.

In September of 1942, Goss came to the Hazleton Center in the same capacity, teaching under Coleman Herpel, who was the administrative head of the Center.

He was named acting Center administrative head in 1943, assistant professor of engineering in 1945 and administrative head and associate professor of engineering of H.U.C. in 1947.

During his local career, Goss served as vice-president of the Pennsylvania Association of Junior Colleges (1946-1947) and as a member of the executive committee of the Middle Atlantic States Council of Junior Colleges (1948-1949).

Mr. Goss' recreational activities consisted of photography and the local Kiwanis Club.

He received professional recognition in "Who's who in Pennsylvania Education," "Who's who in Junior Colleges," and "Who's who in American Education."

Artist Donates Painting

C. Elizabeth Davis, Philadelphia painter, has donated her picture, "Train Time" to the college. It is at present hanging in the lounge of the main building.

Miss Davis has had her works represented in various galleries in New York and Philadelphia.

This brings our collection up to four. The three other paintings in the lounge were donated by William Meyers, a Hazleton artist, whose works have been admired by many.
