

H.U.C vs. Ogontz In Tournament Tonite

This Team Did It Before !!!

The Pennsylvania Junior College basketball champs were crowned March 5, 1948, when the H.U.C. Rudmanites defeated the York Junior College five for the Keystone State crown.

Hastings Hitting It

Sparkplug on the Huc'ster's team is versatile high-scoring guard, Zack Taylor. This twenty-one year old Sophomore was graduated from Hazleton High School in 1947, where he played on the team for three years. His proudest moment occurred when he helped stop Williamsport's sixty game winning streak by holding their ace Wes Myers to five points. When he came out of High School, he got a job in a factory, drove a milk truck and he held other odd jobs. Then he decided this wasn't for him, so he got a job as part time phys. ed. instructor at the Y.M.C.A. He liked this kind of work, and in a short while he had worked himself up to full-time phys. ed. director. He enjoys this kind of work and plans to stay in it or else teach elementary school. He is majoring in art. Zack enjoys playing basketball. He has played in city leagues, Y.M.C.A. leagues, Sunday School leagues, and high school and College. He and a group of friends even go to the Poconos to play basketball. He plans to get on the Penn State team when he goes to campus. Zack goes to college, plays basketball, and yet he has time to hold the position of full-time phys. ed. director at the Y.M.C.A.

League Officials To Meet

A meeting of the Pennsylvania Jr. College Athletic Association will be held in Hazleton at the Altamont Hotel on noon of March 3. The agenda will include: tournament administration, election of officers, finances, and adoption of the league organization to the international situation. Each team in the league will be represented by its coach and student manager.

Tonight the state championship playoffs open at the Hazleton High School gym. How about it people; let's get out there and give the team our whole hearted support. Hazleton is host to the tournament this year, therefore, we should have a large representation at the games to show the people from the other participating schools that we support our team. In the beginning of the season there wasn't very much support and not a great many people attended the games. But toward the end of the season the support was much better.

H.U.C. Courtmen Jolt Johnstown

In a high-scoring encounter at the A. D. Thomas School gym, February 23, the H.U.C. courtmen took Johnstown (Pitt J.C.) into camp to the tune of 89-84.

Despite an early Hazleton lead, Johnstown came back to knot the count during the third canto at 50-50. Good floorwork by Scambia and timely goals by Lefkowitz pulled the game out of the fire.

Taylor, Milligan, and Hutnyan led the H.U.C. attack with 27, 25, and 23 points respectively. The entire Johnstown starting five broke into double figures with Dite leading the way with 23 points.

Tournament Begins Tonight

According to their standings of February 25, the four top teams of the Pennsylvania Junior College Athletic Association will compete on the sixth annual tournament to be held at the Hazleton High School gym. Members of the league are: Altoona Center, Hazleton Center, Hershey Jr. College, Johnstown Center-U of Pitt., Keystone Jr. College, Ogontz Center, Pottsville Center, and York Jr. College. On Friday night, March 2, Hazleton will meet Ogontz in the first game, followed by Johnstown against York. The following night the two losers of Friday night will play a consolation game. Then the finalists will battle it out for the state championship. The York Jr. College team will be the defenders. The winner of the tournament will receive the Charles Polack Trophy, which must be won three times in order to be kept in permanent possession by any one team. At the present time York Jr. College has two legs on the trophy; Hazleton and Altoona both have one.

Mr. Robert Hulton of York is pres. of the league; Syd Rudman vice-pres. and Stuart Marlow is treas. Officers of the tournament are: Mr. Payton, tournament director; Mr. Ciletti, public relations; Mr. Fisher, local publicity; Mr. Pavone, tickets; Mr. Mattern, finances; and Mr. Zerbei, reception.

THE MAIL

I wish to thank the members of the Freshman Class for their greatly appreciated support in the recent election. I shall endeavor to fill my position in Student Council to the best of my ability. Rudman to Leave For Germany

Sometime in April Syd Rudman is supposed to leave for Nurnberg, Germany to assume the position of Athletic Director, in a civilian capacity, for the Dept. of the Army. He is to head a staff of twenty-one physical education, recreation, and athletic specialists supervising the training of 8000 troops at an Army training base somewhere in Germany.

Mr. Rudman, who has been the physical education instructor the past five years, is a native of Philadelphia. He graduated from West Philadelphia High School and attended West Chester State Teachers' College for one year. Syd received his B.S. degree from Penn State in '42 and his M.Ed. in '47. During the war Mr. Rudman served as a U. S. Army athletic officer. His summers have been spent in resorts in New York State where he served as an athletic director.

The five years Mr. Rudman has coached center basketball, the teams have won the Pennsylvania Junior College Tournament and have been runners-up twice. This year his team has again won enough games to be placed among the leaders of the Pennsylvania Junior College Athletic Association and will compete in the annual tournament.

WANTED:
 Cheerleader for tournament games.
