

Dean Harold K. Wilson Is Named 1951 Convocation Speaker

EDITORIAL . . .

Looking over the two-hundred and one students who attended the Center this semester, we've finally come up with seventeen who really stood in the limelight. That is, they either headed an organization or offered their services to an organization in far greater measures than did most of the other students. If it is felt that some omissions have been made when this little item reaches your person, just ask yourself if you have really contributed in any way in making this semester's social season the most successful in the history of the Hazleton Penn State Center. If your conscience answers in the affirmative, then include your name in the following roster and take it for granted that the Collegian made another mistake.

The following students comprise the aforementioned roster:

- Edward McGee—President of Student Council.
- Jane Margwarth — May Queen, President of Women's Organization, Student Council.
- William Deppe—Student Council.
- Joseph Hastings—Student Council.
- Mary Lou Gagliardi — Student Council.
- Henry Giuliani—Student Council.
- Benny Rachilla—Student Council.
- Henry Daniels—Student who showed most interest in student activities.
- Harold Filbert—President of Math-Engineering Club, Collegian Photographer, Most Co-operative of all students.
- John Prehatny — Cadet Captain of Air R.O.T.C.
- Burt Hall—Cadet Captain of Army R.O.T.C.
- Zack Taylor — Captain of Basketball Team.
- Emil Hutnyan — Broke record — record — scored 48 points in 1 game.
- Paul Williams — Leader in entertainment.
- Betty Harlor—Collegian, Secretary of Women's Organization; Only dean's list representative in extra curricular activities.
- Hughie Brennan — Editor of Collegian.

O frantic fortnight spent to cram,
At times I wonder who I am,
So twinkle, twinkle sweet exam,
Frankly I don't give a Damn.

Two mosquitos were resting on Robinson Crusoe's arm. "I'm leaving,"
said one, "I'll meet you on Friday."

Wife: "Haven't you anything nice to say about my mother?"
Husband: "Yes, she objected to our marriage."

The two biggest wolves in the country—Chase and Sanborn. They date every bag.

"Say, you can't open that door with a cigarette butt."
"My gosh, I've smoked my key!"

Gordon and Flartey Receive Transfers

Master Sergeant Vincent C. Gordon

Master Sergeant Vincent C. Gordon has been notified that next semester his duties will take him to the Erie Center of the Pennsylvania State College where he will continue as instructor in Army R.O.T.C. Gordon's true home is in Owensboro, Kentucky, but Erie, Pa. takes him even farther away.

Like Master Sgt. Flartey, Gordon entered the Army before Pearl Harbor. As a member of Patton's 3rd Army he served in England, France, Belgium, Luxemburg, and Germany. He has been an Army man for seven years.

Perna Appointed Temporary Editor

The Collegian staff appointed Miss Betty Perna to head next year's editorial staff for the first issue in early October. After that, Miss Perna will act as chairman at a meeting which will determine who will be the permanent editor-in-chief for the remaining year.

Miss Perna will be shown the why's and wherefores of turning out her first issue before this year's staff permanently disbands. Betty is an art student with a lot of ideas which will tend to improve the Collegian.

Dinner Dance Held

A group made up of 195 students, their friends, and the faculty attended the dinner dance, the final social activity of the year, at Genetti's Ball Room on May 27. Russ Andolaro's orchestra furnished the entertainment. A full course dinner was served, with turkey and "it's dressings" as the main dish. The affair lasted from 7 to 12.

We're Sorry

In last month's issue we said that 24 microscopes were sent to the Erie Center when we meant to say 9 were sent and 24 remain at the Hazleton Center.

Master Sergeant Joseph P. Flartey

Master Sergeant Joseph P. Flartey received word that he is being transferred to Tuft's Medical College in Boston, Massachusetts and will continue his duties as Air Force R.O.T.C. instructor.

Flartey entered the Air Force before Pearl Harbor and was a member of the 12th Air Force during the war. He saw action in the Mediterranean area during the North African, Sicilian, and Italian campaigns. In 1945 he was discharged only to reenlist in 1947.
