TONIGHT'S PARTY POSTPONED

The party scheduled for this evening has been postponed because the "Great Books" Group, which meets every other Friday, has a regularly scheduled meeting tonight. Student Council took this action to avoid confusion. Another date for the party will be announced.

"POPEYE" CAUGHT BELOW DECK; RESCUED AFTER STRENUOUS EFFORTS

Wednesday afternoon from 1:00 until 1:30 Francis Mihalovic, "Popeye", was not seen about the Center. He was scheduled for a class. Where was "Popeye"? Frantic investigation revealed that he was caught below deck with a firmly locked door between him and liberty -- and his class. "Popeye" had become so engrossed in his reading in the college library that he was unconsciously carried into some unknown land while the librarian quietly checked on routine matters and then locked the outer door of the library. After reading for a half hour "Popeye" suddenly realized that it was time for class. Alas -- he strode to the door, gave its knob a twist then a wrench then a heave. He was locked in. After much commotion, much running up and down stairs by an unknown rescuer, much hunting of keys, he was finally freed from "below deck". He made his class -- a little late. The question asked around campus that afternoon was: "What -- no spinach?"

QUIET IS A VIRTUE

Let's see the virtue of quiet when we are in the college library. Others are there for one particular reason -- to study.

THETA SIGMA PI MEETS MARCH 18

ORCHIDS TO THE COLLEGE ARTS SOCIETY AND TO MISS PHILLIPS

Congratulations are in order this week for the College Arts Society and Miss Emma Phillips, sponsors of the film "Don Quixote". At four showings on Wednesday there were good crowds. Students in Spanish from Misericordia, Kings College, and Kingston High School drove over to see the Spanish production of this famous story. The success of the film made it more evident than ever that Highacres needs a gymnasium-auditorium to accommodate such crowds as are anticipated for the next project of the Arts Society, which will be a French film.

SOUTH HALL 101 CHANGES ATMOSPHERE

Everyone is commenting on the changed appearance of South Hall 101. The new paint in two tones of green has given this classroom that doubles as a sort of auditorium an altogether different atmosphere. Let's keep this atmosphere intact by refraining from marking the walls. The story behind the atmosphere is that an exhibition of "modern painting" was held in S101 last Saturday morning by seven members of the college staff. More such exhibitions are rumored to be coming.
