

MOTORISTS MUST REGISTER TUESDAY

All students who drive cars to college are to register the cars that they drive with the Traffic Committee, Tuesday in the foyer of the main building, it was announced by the committee today. To put a stinger in the announcement for a reminder to forgetful people, the committee has announced that a fine of $1.00 will be assessed upon a student for failure to register the car he drives (whether it is his own or not) to college. The purpose, explained David Edwards of the committee, is to see that traffic and parking regulations are enforced fairly to all drivers.

MILITARY BALL TICKETS NOW BEING SOLD

Tickets for the ROTC Military Ball can now be purchased from student representatives. The ball is being held April 19 at the Valley Country Club, with Frankie Reynolds and his Orchestra. Tickets are $3.60.

APRIL 30 TO BE SPRING "CLEAN-UP DAY"

April 30 has been designated by Student Council as "Clean-Up Day", the traditional day at Highacres when students and faculty all turn out to do a spring freshening-up process on the campus in preparation for May Day. This was announced by Council president Henry Giuliani. On "Clean-Up Day" classes will be suspended at 12:20 p.m. The afternoon will be taken for dividing into crews with specific jobs on the campus. May 7 has been set as the rain-date.

INSIDE INFORMATION ON EASTER VACATION

Officially coinciding with the main campus schedule, Easter Recess starts at 12:20 p.m., Wednesday, April 9. Classes resume Wednesday, April 16 at 12:25 p.m.

42 MEN JOIN FIRE FIGHTERS

Forty-two Highacres men turned out for the Fire Prevention meeting last week. At the meeting Robert E. Akers, fourth semester zoology and entomology major, was named leader of the fire prevention organization. Named as assistants were Raymond Schultz, second semester education major, and Joseph C. Smith, fourth semester commerce and finance major. At a meeting yesterday with Andrew McLovich of the fire department in charge, the groups was divided into squadrons. Student crews may be called on in fire emergencies throughout the state.

LANGUAGE CLUB DONATES $16 TOWARD FRENCH MOVIE

At its meeting Thursday the Language Club donated $16.00 to the College Arts Society toward the rental of a French made movie which is being scheduled for showing soon. The club also elected officers at yesterday's meeting. Results released to the COLLEGLIAN are President -- Joseph C. Smith, fourth semester commerce and finance student; vice president -- Donald G. Fisher, fifth semester arts and letters student; secretary-treasurer -- Ruth E. Feingold, second semester arts and letters major; publicist -- Marie E. Jacko, second semester commerce and finance major; and sergeant-at-arms -- Vincent Corrado, third semester commerce and finance major. The decision was made by the club that an annual dues of $1.00 will be necessary for club maintenance.

DO YOU WANT THE COLLEGLIAN PICTURE REVIEW? SEE GIULLIANI OR NOWAK

NAIL-BITERS AND HAIR-TEARERS, ATTENTION

Today is the deadline for the faculty to turn in mid-semester grades to the office. These grades do not become officially registered on students' permanent records. Mr. Frank Kostos says, as we go to press, that grade reports will probably be sent home to all students during the Easter recess.