

YOU CAN PREREGISTER NOW FOR NEXT SEMESTER

Yesterday Mr. Frank Kostos, assistant administrative head, started to hold consultations and to pre-register students for next semester. He will continue these pre-registration sessions until April 30, and that's not far away.

MAKE IT A DATE: START LINING UP THAT WOMAN FOR THE QUEEN'S BALL

The Student Council has reminded students and faculty to start lining up their "dates" for the big "Queen's Ball", which will follow the May Day Coronation May 10. This big semi-formal dance will start at 9:00 in the Valley Country Club and will swing to the music of Scotty Parsons and His Orchestra.

COLLEGE ART SOCIETY DEALS FOR FRENCH MOVIE

The College Arts Society is awaiting the word on the date for a French movie. Our next issue should have this information.

PLANS BREWING FOR CLEAN-UP DAY

Progress is reported by the Student Council in its planning for the Annual Clean-Up Day April 30. The student body is to be divided into groups, each with a faculty member, to proceed with the spring cleaning of the campus. The Council says that it will serve refreshments to the workers.

BOWLING LEAGUE GAINING MOMENTUM

Intra-mural bowling leaguers, under the direction of Coach Harold Wausat, are gaining momentum at their Monday night rumble and crash sessions at the Y.M.C.A. We haven't been publishing the scores because they are too old by our Friday publication date to be news. Coach Wausat posts the official scores and standings on the bulletin boards.

The schedule for next Monday is as follows:

Devils vs Headpins	6:00 p.m.
Blue Aces vs Vultures	7:15 p.m.
Jeeps vs Mohocks	8:45 p.m.

P. P. AND L. MAN TO SPEAK TO MATHSCIENCEENGINEERING CLUB MONDAY

Monday at 7:30 the Math-Science-Engineering Club will have as guest speaker a man on the staff of the Pennsylvania Power and Light Company.

THETA SIGMA PI CHOOSES PINS

The women in the Highacres sorority Theta Sigma Pi have chosen a pin suitable for their organization and have put in their orders for the pins. They are expected to arrive in about three weeks.

GIRLS, DO YOU WANT TO ARCH?

Girls interested in retaining and developing that womanly beauty are to have the opportunity of supervised outdoor sports on the Highacres athletic field, it has been announced by Miss Florence Yannes, dean of women. She said that Coach Wausat will supervise the girls in archery, softball, volleyball and other sports every Thursday at 1:30 on the athletic field.

LOCALE OF MAY QUEEN'S CORONATION ANNOUNCED; REHEARSAL

Publicity chairman for the May Day celebration at Highacres, May Lou Gagliardi, has announced that the coronation of May Queen Josephine Donish will take place in the sunken garden. She says that the girls are expecting the largest May Day crowd in Highacres history.

Program chairman Mathilda Goyda has announced rehearsal this afternoon at 4:00 in the college library for all the girls who are in the coronation ceremony.

CARD OF THANKS  Miss Florence Yannes has asked us to thank students and faculty for their kind remembrances during her recent hospitalization.