

MAY DAY DATE SETTLED FOR SATURDAY, MAY 10

May Day is only a week away now, since the date has been settled for May 10, after a considerable discussion and inquiry into the possibility of conflicts with previously scheduled parties on Saturday and church and mother's day activities in the area. The rain date has been set for Sunday, but hopes are high for good weather for Saturday.

Starting time for the coronation ceremonies on Saturday have been set back to 3:30 to accommodate spectators who may wish to attend a tea sponsored by the Hazleton A.A.U.W. for senior high school girls.

ANNOUNCE COEDS IN HEMLOCK CHAIN AND MAIDS-IN-WAITING

Eleven girls have been going through thorough rehearsals for their part in the May Day ceremonies -- the forming of the hemlock chain and the dance of the bell. And Mary Ellen Anthony and Candida Ramaviglia are to be maids-in-waiting to Queen Josephine Donish.

Coeds in the hemlock chain are Kathryn Switch, Joan Griesing, Arlene Krieger, Isabel White, Elise Kreiger, Jacqueline Garis, Marie Jacko, Mary Foulkrod, Florence Pusti, Mary Sue Hasara, and Pearl Paternoster.

The dancers are being trained by Savario Saullo, health and gymnastics teacher at Hazleton High School. Mr. Saullo has a dance studio in Hazleton.

FLOWER GIRLS COME FROM COLLEGE STAFF FAMILIES

Flower girls for the Queen's Coronation need no introduction by name at least at Highacres, because their papas are all pretty well known people around here. The dainty misses are Patricia Coyne, Dorothy Krecker, Maureen Coyne, Kay Campbell, and Deborah Ward.

WOMEN INVITE THE MEN FOR MAY DAY

The age-old tradition of May Day that the college women invite the men of their choice will be carried out this year. But following another practical tradition, the men who are not invited can take the bull by the horns or the woman by her hair and work out their own invitations.

GOOD OPENING FOR AMBITIOUS YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN

Since the crowning of our May Queen and the Queen's Ball will both be held on Saturday, May 10, there is need for ambitious or at least loyal fellows and girls to assist with the many elaborate decorations in the garden setting of the Coronation and at the Valley Country Club, where the ball will be held.

Volunteers are needed for Saturday morning. There volunteers will be split in half (our reporter did not describe this messy scene) and some will be assigned to each of the big scenes. See Paul Williams, council decoration chairman, for more information about this important job.

YOU HAVE ALREADY PAID FOR YOUR ADMISSION TO THE CORONATION BALL

Since the Coronation Ball, Saturday evening, May 10, is sponsored by the Highacres Student Council with funds from the activities fees that all students pay every semester, all students have already "purchased their admission tickets" and are only losing their own money if they do not attend the big ball. The dance is open to all college students and "their dates".
