

19
HAZLETON COLLEGIAN
Weekly Newsletter Edition

The Pennsylvania State College Center
Highacres, Hazleton, Pennsylvania

~~Vol. XIV No. 14~~
Vol. XIV No. 14

1951-52 STUDENT COUNCIL APPOINTS INTERIM COUNCIL

To look after student affairs during the summer and to prepare things to ~~hop in~~ the fall, the 1951-52 Student Council has appointed an Interim Council, which will hold its first meeting Tuesday, June 3 at 11:45.

Interim Council members appointed were Charles McGeehan, William Coll, Dorothy Kosack, David Edwards, James Ustynoski, Joan Griesing, Marie Jacko, Mary Hasara, Andrew Karpinski, Laurence Roman, and Raymond Schultz.

DEADLINE MONDAY FOR CONVOCATION DINNER-DANCE RESERVATIONS

Deadline for making reservations for students and their guests for the Convocation Dinner-Dance -- climax of the year's academic and social activities -- has been set for Monday, June 2. This traditional spring term function will be held at Genetti's on Laurel Street, Saturday evening, June 7 at 6:00.

The Three Tunes will play for the dance, which starts at 9:00 p.m.

Senator Paul L. Wagner will be the speaker at the convocation. At the convocation also the academic, athletic, and activities awards will be presented, and Parnassus, the new college honors society, will recognize the "most valuable" sophomore and the "most valuable" freshman.

SOFTBALLERS COMPLIMENT COACH WAUSAT

Several potent softball players have approached the copyreader-typist of this sheet to ask the COLLEGIAN to express their appreciation publicly to Coach Harold Wausat for the sincerity and zest with which he took over the basketball varsity and intramural program at midyear, and the painstaking, quiet zeal with which he organized and operated the finest softball league in years.

WE WUZ WRONG; IT'S A FOUR-WAY TIE NOW BEING PLAYED-OFF

The Profile Nine and the Deans did scramble the intramural softball league by knocking off the Bandits and Head Pins respectively but certainly not respectfully. The scores were

	R	H	E
Bandits	0	3	3	Winning pitcher Krause
Profile Nine	6	9	1	Losing pitcher Ustynoski
Head Pins	14	13	5	Winning pitcher Fisher
Deans	16	18	0	Losing pitcher Seeley

In the first game of the playoffs, the Bandits came back and defeated the Profiles

CONGRATULATIONS, STUDENTS, FROM THE LIBRARY STAFF

Every book borrowed from the college library by students had been returned by the start of final examinations, Miss Pearl Garbrick announced Thursday. She and the student members of the library staff extend their congratulations.

TWO HAZLETON CENTER STUDENTS GRADUATE WITH HONORS AT MAIN CAMPUS

John P. McNally and Walter C. Stone, both of whom completed a two year stay at the Hazleton Center in 1950, will be graduated with honors from the main campus, June 9. Stone won the mathematics award here. A DuBois Center girl, Joan Richards, is valedictorian.