

COLLEGE ARTS SOCIETY SELECTS THREE FOREIGN FILMS

French, Spanish, and either a German or Italian film will be shown to students and townspeople this winter, according to plans of the College Arts Society, meeting last Wednesday.

The society now has 17 members, each with a specific duty. Among other duties, each member is to be chairman of at least one meeting.

Joan Griesing is secretary of the society. Miss Dolores DiRubbo is the faculty adviser.

SORORITY PLANS SOCIAL SEASON

Theta Sigma Pi, Highacres sorority whose membership is open to all women students, had formal initiation for 14 new members, November 6. Seven sophomores helped to make the candlelight ceremony very impressive. The initiation was in charge of Joan Griesing, sorority president.

After the new members were formally invested, Miss DiRubbo, dean of women and sorority adviser, explained the real meaning of "sorority." Freshmen were assigned "Big Sisters" who will serve in helping their "little Sisters" in all matters. Plans were completed for a full social year.

THANKSGIVING BALL TO BE AT ALTAMONT

At the Student Council meeting last night, social chairman Joe Mehalick announced that final plans are complete for our first semi-formal of the college year-- The Thanksgiving Ball.

The ball is to be held in the Altamont Hotel ballroom, and music will be furnished by the Modernaires. Dancing starts at nine o'clock.

Remember, this dance is sponsored by the Student Council and is paid for by your S.G.A. Fund. This entitles each student to bring a guest to the dance.

Come one -- come all: Help make your college dance a big success.

MUMMY CLUB ACTIVE

The Fourth Dynasty of the Mummy Club met in October under the direction of Mr. James Steel. At this meeting, Mr. Steel explained the purpose of the club. The following officers were elected: Pharaoh, Nick Polick; Grand Vizier, John Carr, Keeper of the Granaries, Frank Smida; Scribe, Mabel Lewis; Keeper of the Portals, Manny Neff and Dominic DeToma; High Priest of Osiris, Bob Tracy. The new members were initiated.

The following committees were appointed: Social committee -- Sally Rarich, Harriet Tulin, Jim Carroll, and Ed Eisiminger; program committee -- Janice Magavich, Beverly Wizdo, Joe Belovich, Pete Pavuk, and Joe Marinelli.

At the second meeting, Mr. Steel showed slides of pyramids, carvings, rock-cut tombs, and temples.

The next meeting will be held November 20 at 8:00 o'clock in South Hall 101. Anyone who would like to join is invited to attend the meeting.
