

HAZLETON COLLEGIAN
Weekly Newsletter Edition

Vol. XV, No. 8

The Pennsylvania State College Center
Highacres, Hazleton, Pennsylvania

---

MR. CAMPBELL VISITS WISCONSIN

Over the weekend of November 21, while it was raining in Highacres, Mr. Campbell, Administrative Head at Highacres, was on a business trip in the clear, sunny weather at Wisconsin.

Mr. Campbell (accompanied by S. H. Campbell from the Central Extension Office; E. L. Keller, Assistant Director of General Extension; and Reed Ferguson of Behrend Center at Erie) went to the University of Wisconsin to discuss the university extension program, which deals primarily with off-main-campus centers. There were sixteen representatives at the meeting. These representatives were from Purdue University, Indiana University, University of Wisconsin, and Pennsylvania State College.

The extension programs of these universities are very similar, but Penn State is the leader in this extension program. It is the only college which owns all of its extension centers. Penn State is far ahead of the other colleges and is progressing rapidly in its operational techniques.

---

FAITHFUL MEMBERS CONTINUE WITH CLUB

X It's going on a month since Highacres was invaded by the "Bearded Men." In an interview with one of our reporters, a member stated that the next meeting of the club will be held at "Creepy Joe's" in McAddo, December 16. The members feel that they are martyrs to the cause of beards. They also said that they are being persecuted at home and abroad. Strange as it seems, there are no female objections. Anyone wishing to join the club is asked to contact the club officers. (Ed. Note: "Contact?" Ugh!)

---

NOTE OF THANKS

Joe Mehalick, Social Committee Chairman, expresses his sincerest thanks to Joe Marinelli, Tony DeToma, Sally Rarick, Mabel Lewis, Joe Belovich, Bob Tomsho, and Jack Ciocca for their help in decorating the Hotel Altamont ballroom for the annual Turkey Hop. (Ed. Note: Considering the small amount of material and time allotted them, the decorating committee did a creditable job.)

---

FLASH: CHRISTMAS BALL AT GENETTI'S

Hot off the Student Council wire comes the word that the Christmas Ball sponsored by the Council will go on at Genetti's Ball Room on Laurel Street next Friday night, December 12.

For the music, social chairman Joe Mehalick has announced Gabe Garland and his Orchestra.

Dancing in this attractive, centrally-located spot will be from nine till twelve. The social committee will probably serve refreshments.

---

STUDENT-COMMUNITY CHORUS PROGRAM DECEMBER 16

The Student-Community Chorus will present its annual Christmas program and carol sing on Tuesday, December 16 at 7:45 p. m., in Wittich's Music Store, Hazleton. The public is invited to attend.

---

STAFF THIS ISSUE

Jane Tressler
Janice Magavich
Mabel Lewis

Joseph Belovich
John Misoda
Harriet Tulin

---