ending today.

STUDENT DIRECTORIES

There are still many student directories, which contain the names and addresses of all students at the Center, in the Main Office. Any student who does not have one, may obtain his or hers in the main office.

SEVEN-DAY BOOKS ANNOUNCED

All books for collateral reading in Comp. 5 have been placed upon a special seven-day list. Miss Pearl Garbrick explained that each student is limited to seven days loan on any one book.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO DANCE?

Student Council has announced that dancing classes will be held at Highacres if there is enough interest among the students.

Mr. Campbell informed us that Mrs. Dolores Emerich will be available for either Wednesday or Thursday evening sessions.

If you are interested, place your name on the list posted on the upstairs bulletin board.

STUDENT COUNCIL NEWS

Student Council has received several proposed amendments to the constitution, concerning the status of a representative who was elected as a freshman and who entered the sophomore class at mid-year. The following council members are on the committee to review these proposals: Andrew Karpinski, Elise Kreiger, and Pat Tomsho.

Mr. Mattern announced that an additional $100 has been deposited to the Student Council account. Elise Kreiger made a motion to credit $50 to the Social Fund and $50 to the Miscellaneous Fund. It was seconded by Bob Tomsho and passed.

Nick Pelick made a motion to allot $15.00 to the Intra-Mural Fund to buy equipment for the Fencing Club. It was seconded by Jack Ciocca and passed.

CAMPUS CHATTER BY THE "CHIPPY CHIPMUNK"

How many of us have sat in the main lounge or the dining commons and wondered who the student or students in the opposite end of the room were. Well, your little old friend, Chippy Chipmunk, is going to tell you a little bit about some of them each week.

Many of you may have noticed a huge six-foot-four fellow student wandering around the campus lately. Well, he's Norm Hall, a most welcome addition to Coach Frank Antinozzi's Lions. Since Norm's addition to the basketball squad, the Highacresites have won three out of four games. Where were you last semester, Norm? We would have been overjoyed to have had you then, too.

Our outnumbered females were recently strengthened by the addition of two pretty gals---Theresa Flynn and Anna Petrushka. Theresa's majoring in psychology---watch out you men, she may be psycho-analyzing you one of these days. Anna's majoring in the general field of Science. Who said it was a man's world?

The institution of marriage has coralled many a fine man and Highacre students are no exception. Several students have taken the fatal step lately. Two fellows who are majoring in labor management -- a course which ought to be beneficial in keeping peace in the family -- recently said "I do." One of them is practically an old-timer for Don Neifert and his wife Helen will celebrate their first wedding anniversary this June. Jack Donovan, a newly-enrolled freshman, and his wife Mildred will have been married one month tomorrow. Chippy has seen both Helen and Mildred, and let me tell you, fellows, they're both "gorgeous". Best wishes, Don and Helen, Jack and Mildred.

That handsome sophomore, Joe Andrews (aw come on, Joe, you know it's true) has been a jokester this past week. He has had both the "Psych" and "Econ" classes
