himself the necessary spark of the team, was held to two field goals during the first half. Suffering from "large-courtitis" he managed to flip in the remaining 14 points. Clint Frnak also flipped in five field goals and one foul to total 11. "B B" Burcin, Evancho, and Griesing a defensive trio racked up 20 among themselves, while Kobrick and Scarcella tallied for 2 foul shots.

Considering the liabilities faced by the Mountain Lions: a large court, number one team of the league as an opponent, and an off-night for the Highacres five, (Ed. Note: What an alibi) the Lion fans think their boys did a creditable job. Resting comfortably in the fifth spot with a 4-8 record, the Lions wind up a terrific season.

The PJCAA standings will be published as soon as they are officially verified.

Individual points: Hall---18; Frank---11; Greising---7; Evancho---7; Burcin---6; Kobrick---1; Scarcella---1.

Andy Karpinski has appointed Elise Krieger, Nick Pelick, Pat Tomsho, and Jack Ciocca to serve on the Convocation Dinner Committee. The Committee is to be composed of 2 sophomores, 2 freshmen, and 4 faculty members.

SIGMA SIGNAL

This week while the reporters of the Collegian were still gathering news, the members of Mu Delta Sigma were busily stenciling their first copy of the Sigma Signal.

A few weeks ago the members of the fraternity decided that they would like to have a paper of their own. After receiving the advice and permission of Mr. Campbell and Mr. Krecker, the members appointed Ed Keller as editor of the paper. A staff was chosen to help Ed, and each member of the fraternity was given a special duty to perform. Each member of the fraternity did his required duty and on Thursday, March 5, the first volume was in circulation. The fraternity plans to publish the paper every week if possible. However, because of its financial condition the fraternity regrets to say that it is only able to publish enough papers for their members.
