
COLLEGIAN STAFF APPOINTED

Joe Belovich has been appointed to serve as managing editor of THE COLLEGIAN newspaper staff for the spring semester. Joe, who hails from Nesquehoning, is a fourth semester student in the pre-medical curriculum. As assistant managing editor, John Misoda is sure to fill the bill. Another native of Nesquehoning, John is a second semester student enrolled in mechanical engineering. Mabel Lewis has been officially appointed production manager. This second semester freshman is from Muhlenburg. She is majoring in business education. Looks like there is a promising future ahead for THE COLLEGIAN.

The staff requested their adviser, Mr. W. R. Grubbs, to make the appointments.

CAMPUS CHATTER By "CHIPPY CHIPMUNK"

Hello friends, here I am again with a little news of your fellow students--perhaps some about you!

The latest addition to Highacres is Ralph Sirota, a commuter from Kingston who appeared on our campus last week. Welcome to our happy family Ralph--hope to be hearing about you.

The happy atmosphere of our dormitory is due in part (we hear) to the voice of Stan Miller. His chemistry lab friends have given him the title "Mad Scientist", and from what I have observed he is quite a whiz with a ping-pong paddle.

Senor Anthony Pecone seems to be the one who is keeping Senorita Di Rubbo up at night--with his never-ending stream of questions in her Spanish class.

What would Phy. Sci. 8 class do without the assistance of George Mastroianni and Norm Hall? They are the best movie projectionists Mr. Mattern has ever had.

So long for now, but hope to be hearing from you soon.
