

HAZLETON COLLEGIAN
Weekly Newsletter Edition
The Pennsylvania State College Center

Extra
Vol. XV, No. 22

March 31, 1953

MARIE JACKO -- MAY QUEEN

The 9th of May--May Day--one of the most celebrated and honored days on the Center's calendar, will have as it's queen lovely Miss Marie Jacko, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Jacko, Jeddo, Pa. Marie is enrolled as a ~~third~~^{fourth} semester Commerce student, and serves as the secretary of the Theta Sigma Pi Sorority, a member of the College Arts Society, and a member of Parnassus--Honor Society here at Highacres.

With 140 students casting their votes, freshman honors went to Miss Jean Haegele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Justus Haegele, Hazleton, Pa.

Donning her crown on May 9, Queen Marie will reign over the colorful May Day festivities which will be held on the green garden here at Highacres. Attending the Queen will be Mary Donish, McAdoo; Catherine Kokinda, Hazleton--the freshman electives--while Joan Griesing, Ebervale, will serve as sophomore attendant.

Adding to the pomp and ceremony, significant of the May Day Coronation, will be the Queen's Court consisting of Scroll Bearer, Mary Hasara-Freeland; Key Bearer, Anna Petrushka-Freeland; Heart Bearer, Janice Magavich-Hazleton; and the Crown Bearer, Elise Kreiger, who hails from Hazleton.

It was also decided by Miss DiRubbo, adviser to the Theta Sigma Pi Sorority and supervisor of both the election and May Day, that on the approach leading to the Queen's throne a chain of hemlock will be held by some of the girls of the Sorority. Composing the hemlock chain will be: Mary Bissol, Hazleton; Theresa Flynn, White Haven; Nancy Kibler, Weatherly; Mabel Lewis, Muhlenburg; Lois Miller, Hazleton; Sally Parich, Drums; Patricia Tomsho, West Hazleton; Jane Tressler, Conyngham; Harriet Tulin, Hazleton; and Beverly Wizzo, who resides in Freeland.

Barring complications, the May Day Crown will be placed upon Marie's head by last year's May Day Queen--Josephine Donish, now in nurses training at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Maryland.

With May Day festivities commencing at 3:30 p.m., and being highlighted by the coronation, a mid-afternoon tea and refreshments will be served in the lounge of the Main Building. Terminating this day of celebration will be the May Day Dance held at the Eagles, Laurel St., Hazleton, sponsored by the Student Council and planned by the Student Activity Committee.

The COLLEGIAN staff wishes all of its readers a very Happy Easter Vacation.

COLLEGIAN STAFF

Editor-----Joe Belovich	Reporters
Assistant Editor----John Misoda	Mary Bissol	Nick Skimbo
Production Manager---Mabel Lewis	Jean Haegele	Jane Tressler
Exchanges-----Mary Donish	Janice Magavich	Pat Tomsho
	George Mastroianni	Harriet Tulin
	Sally Parich	Beverly Wizzo
