BLUE SKIES TURN GREEN

A streak of metal gleamed in the sky as ten pairs of eyes gleamed out the window--our fly boys are at it again!

Bob Tomsho, Nick Pelick, Ted Horwath, Ray Schulta, Tom Onderko, Bob Tracy, Frank Smida, Anthony Pecone, Bill Kurdziel, and Nick Yankoski, took off once again with Captain Carper on a trip around the school, Philadelphia, and Maryland.

The boys reported an enjoyable trip; however, when they arrived home they seemed a wee bit green which clashed horribly with their blue uniforms!

CAPACITY CROWD SEES "OPEN CITY"

A capacity crowd attended the showing of the Italian film "Open City", which was presented by the College Arts Society Wednesday night in the lounge. The movie deals with the Italian underground during the Nazi occupation in World War II. Under the direction of Roberto Rossellini, the story was realistic, although brutal, in depicting the courage of the men, women, and children in the movement for liberation.

The stars of the movie were: Anna Magnani, Aldo Fabrizi, and Marcello Pagliero.

Serving capacity audiences for every performance this year, is a good indication that next year's programs will be equally as good.

THANK FELLAS!

Who always puts the chairs away after the movies? Who always is around to put back the rugs and furniture after dancing class? And as for that matter who is responsible for the success of our campus parties? The answer is our heroes---the dorm boys. Always there to lend a helping hand, the fraternity brothers help out without ever receiving their proper credit. Appreciate your help fellas?---You bet!
