

CHIPPY CHIPMUNK (continued)

it immensely. I heard someone remark that the "angels" were around that morning.

Andy Diaz and a friend of his are going to start a new club. I don't think the two of them ever began actual work on it, however. I think with Andy and his friend as instructors it would be a sure hit. Maybe you had better get started!

I heard that our friend Donald Rantz keeps that midnight oil burning steadily. (Studying, of course) Keep up the good work, Don.

Bob Stauffer shows signs of becoming a professional dancer. He certainly "cuts the rug" during Thursday night dancing sessions.

I certainly wish I could have the disposition of one of our fellow students. This boy is our one and only Nick Dobrovolsky. He always has a friendly smile for everyone.

Why was Bill Kurdziel absent from speech class the day after the second flight? Maybe he read the book "Blue Skies Turn to Green."

Joe Andrews asked me to tell you his favorite story about the 2 cool cats that were walking in New York City. They saw the Empire State Building burning. The one cat turned to the other and said, "Dig that crazy Ronson." Cool, Joe, Cool!

Ernie Koons seems to be having trouble making it to Comp class. Need a new alarm clock, or how about a new car, Ernie?

We've finally received permission from Joe Schumacher to reveal his hobby. Yes, now it can be told. Joe is an accomplished hypnotist--Look into our eyes, Joe.

It has been rum red that Vicious Larry Sydlo will never set foot in an airplane again. Is this so, Larry? By the way we have heard a new name for Larry--"Sagacious Syd."

Has anyone bumped into Bill Coll, lately? Well, if you have, and if you are a male student, you're sure to have been asked to buy your flowers from him for the May Dance. Price includes delivery? Dig that crazy salesman! !

If you see Buzz Wersinger, ask him what the shiny ring on the chest strap of a parachute is for. He knows! !

Zany Zablocki seems to be in a slump at the moment. Could it be due to frequent visits to Beaver Brook.

A flashy performance by Joseph A. Scarcella in a recent "spelling bee", resulted in a win for the best side.

The poor man's Ted Lewis, Hugh McGeehan can be seen around these parts sporting a derby. What's the scoop, Hugh? Trying to chase away the Leprechaun's?

Now it's time for Chippy to leave the Campus once again because I must go to buy a new gown for May Day. Until next week then, I'll say so-long

Chippy Chipmunk

COLLEGIAN STAFF

Editor--Joe Belovich

Assn't Editor--John Misoda

Production Mgn.--Mabel Lewis

Exchanges--Mary Donish

Reporters

Norm Hall

George Mastroianni

Nick Skimbo

Joe Andrews

Mary Bissol

Jean Haogele

Janice Magavich

Sally Rarich

Jane Tressler

Pat Tomsho

Harriet Tulin

Beverly Wizzo

(Adv. Note: Eight Pages!
We've hit the jackpot.)