CO:AUNITY CHORUS SCORES A HIT

A combination of collcge student's and toms-poolc's voicos prosented a two-hour musical program on Tuosday cvoning at the Christ Luthoran Parish hall. It was the annual Spring Concort of the Cormunity Chorus of Highacres. The soventecn members of the chorus underthe dircction of iss Pcorl G. Garbrick prosentod two hours of roligious and folk music. Cood Janc Trosslor sang a somrano solo of Francks "0 Lord #lost Holy." Othor mombers of the quartet wore Lois Hillcr, Edward Kcllor, and Villiem Hebcl.

The audicnce especially onjoyod tho playing of a Hoydin trio (no. 6 in D liajor) by mombers of tho faculty, ifiss Garbrick violin; trs. Duchnc, piano; and Iir. Ward, 'collo.

Tho audionco was vory roceptive to the last two songs which werc of a lightor dogroc. The Czocho-Slovak tunc "lators Ripnlo and Flow" foatura iss Jean Gilbert and our own student, Tom Ondorko as soloists.

The most ofton hoard romark unon the complution of the progran was that the cormunity chorus concerts arc "goting bottor and bettor with cach performancc."

Tho chorus did us proud-a bouquct of roscs to you, 沙s liarbrick, faculty, and chorus iacrabors:
