

May 8, 1953

Page 4

---

BELIEVE IT OR NOT (continued)

Danco. (Will someone loan him their little black book for a while?)

Bob Tracy's eyes always look like "two cherries in a glass of buttermilk."
Too much studying Bob?

Joan Griesing and Marie Jacko think a ride in a chevy is like a ride in a roller coaster. What's the scoop girls?

Next year Ping Pong will be a one(1) credit course and required for all second semester sophomore's.

John Salko and Nick Yankoski, are noted cigar specialists and are willing to advise any student seeking information pertaining to cigar industry.

Tony Pecone has been nicknamed "Buzzard" --- you'll have to ask him for the explanation.

In the last election Mike "Jarkie" Evancho voted for Joe Louis --- a little confused, aren't you mike?

"Ponty" Turnbach is still dating that girl from Shenandoah ----- he likes black eyes!

---

MAY QUEEN TO BE CROWNED TOMORROW AFTERNOON

Tomorrow afternoon at 3:00 O'clock to the music of Freddy Houser and his Hammond Organ and the formation of the AFROTC honor guard, our lovely May Queen, Marie Jacko, her attendants, the bearers, flower girls, and the girls of the Hemlock Chain will make their appearance on the campus lawn. To the music of the organ the Hemlock Chain will perform the graceful, "Dance of the Bells." The honor attendants and their escorts will dance to the music of "The Black Hawk Waltz."

Ralph Sirota, in the role of the Court Jester, will add gaiety and color to the occasion. He will read the Class Will, which was written by Joe Belovich, Andy Karpinski, and Norm Hall.

After the presentation of the Key, heart, and crown, and the reading of Scroll, our lovely queen will be crowned by last year's queen, Miss Josephine Donish, Mc Adoo.

After the coronation ceremonies, refreshments will be served in the Main Lounge by the women of the Penn State Center Auxiliary.

The attractive program cover was designed by Elise Kreiger, and Sylvia Williams gave her help in the production and preparation of the programs.

---

STUDENT COUNCIL

At the Student Council meeting, Wednesday, Mr. Tomsho reported that the S. A. C. has announced that plans are complete for the May Day dance to be held Saturday May 9 at the Eagles Ballroom.

He also reported that the committee is planning an all-college picnic. Place-Rumbel's, time-Sunday, May 17. (Ed. Note. Latest word from S.A.C.)

It was decided upon to pay half the cost of repairing the phonograph which was broken at one of the dancing classes.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

---

THANK YOU, BOYS

Miss Pearl G. Garbrick, our most capable music director, wishes to extend her note of thanks to a group of boys who willingly extended their services to her on Wednesday, May 6 when she was confronted with the problem of moving a piano. As is the usual case in the undertaking of most prodigious projects, equipment must be moved and it was a completely "voluntary" stage crew that

---