CHIPPY CHATTER (continued)

What's this duel between John Henderson and Roy Schultz? Clark Gable better watch or he'll be out of a job! hhm.

Marv Edelstein certainly doesn't want to lose his title as "King of the Baldies." Have you seen his latest hairdo?

I attended the chorus concert which I enjoyed very much. It appears that the members of the chorus really like their director. It was a beautiful orchid, Miss Garbrick!

While walking to class the other day, I noticed we have two members of the dorm who might have been trying for the track team--none other than Dave Edwards and Norm Hall. What's the scoop, boys?

Our friend Jack Gromniak seems to be the most popular fellow around the dorms. All he hears anymore is "Jack, will you type my term paper?" Do you have yours done, Jack?

In case of fire no one in the Chem lab has to worry. For further details ask John Misoda and Mary Donish about the new sprinkling system in the lab.

The other day I passed by Mr. Steel's botany III class and I heard Mr. Steel remark about the rainy weather, and I quote "Dig that cool dew!"

Ralph Sirota is the new commentator for Mr. Steel's zoology 25 class. See Ralph for further information.

Hugh McGeachan isn't the only fancier of hats. Have you noticed the fancy little creations that adorn the top of Janice Magavich's head?

The main discussion headed by Jim Ustynoski, Bob Tracy, and Frank Smida seems to be about the proper way to ask for beer. Frank insists you ask for four beer not beers. Practising boys?

This week I close with special encouragement to all involved in making the May Day festivities a success.

Special thanks go to Joan Griesing and Ralph Sirota-who are not members of the COLLEGLIAN staff, for the typing they did for the paper.

(Ed.note to Chippy Chipmunk: What is this "walking to class" stuff? In the first place you don't walk; you scamper. In the second place what are you doing in class? You haven't paid your tuition. Besides, you are hired by THE COLLEGLIAN to look in windows, peek under doors, and snoop around the campus with your friend Melvin. And there's another thing: where has that mole-friend tunneled to lately. Get with it, you Tanias striatus!)

ATTENTION

The Mu Delta Sigma Fraternity wishes to announce the site of their frat picnic which is to be held this Sunday Afternoon May 10. The Frat has decided that the picnic will be held at Hanson's at Harvey's Lake. All those who have received their written invitations are requested to be there. The Frat also regrets that because of limited funds they, the Frat., are unable to extend an invitation to the entire student body.
