DANCING CLASS

At last week's dancing class two new dances were introduced to Highacres. These dances being the Bunny Hop and the Hokey Pokey. The Bunny Hop was originally introduced by "Taptoes" Tracy a few weeks ago, but last Thursday was the first time the entire class participated in the dance.

Later in the evening the famous "Dixieland Tree" came and played for the remainder of the evening.

According to previous classes, the future dancing classes should be a success if they are supported as well as the others.

Dancing from 8:00 to 10:30.

CLOSED CASE

The IV Dynasty Mummy Club held its last meeting of the semester last night at 7:30 in SO.-101. After the business meeting refreshments were served and all of the Mummies proceeded to the lounge where dancing class was being held. Thus the Mummies closed the case for the Spring Semester, but hope to be able to dig up the remains next fall.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

Captain Carper is getting a jet trainer for the AFROTC Cadets next year.---
( Don't tell to many people or classes will have to be held on the athletic field. )

Sally Rarich has discovered a swimming pool on the college premises---oh, where oh, where can it be?

George Mastrianni has three (3) different jobs for the summer. ( George is one of the reasons why we have an unemployment problem. )

Ray Schultz claims someone slipped a "mickey" into one of his drinks the night of the May Day Dance. How many did you have before that, Ray?

Beverly Wizzo believes growing potatoes is the most fabulous business at the present time. Why, Beverly?

A group of Penn Staters were watching a man who was having an epileptic fit and as he was going through his strange antics, Tony Pecore shouted, "Go car go."

Miss Garbrick passes cars on the highway just so she can use that "power gear." Crazy that gear, crazy.

Pete Pacuk is the dormitory "haircutter" and Frank Smida is his assistant. With only one hair clipper, why do you need an assistant?

Bobby Valiak is the only freshman that already has a degree. It's an L. E. degree. See Bob for further details.

Nick Skimbo does his studying with an ice-pack on his head, so as not to be affected by the warm weather. Cool, Nick, Cool.

Norm Hall and Bob Henney are "women beaters"---now, now, gentlemen, we'll have no more of it.
