

BELIEVE IT OR NOT (continued)

John Salko wants to be a house mother on the campus -- Really John -- I don't think you'd qualify.

Janice Magavich is the only girl who has three dimensional glasses. (both regular and sun glasses) You see things much better now-- don't y u Janice?

Beverly Wizdo and Janice Magavich left in the middle of a chriminology lecture-- where did y u go girls-- to turn yourselves in?

Mary Bissol doesn't like "orange tractors" -- this is as puzzling to me as it is to y u!

CHIPPY SALUTES --

This week Chippy would like to salute a person who deserves to have his name in print. He is the person who so capably heads the Collegian staff -- our one and only Joe Belovich.

Because this is the last edition of the Collegian, I think it is only proper to express appreciation, on behalf of the staff and me (Chippy), to Joe for the splendid job which he has done all semester.

To Joe, the staff and Chippy wish to extend the best of luck throughout the future. The center will certainly miss you when you're gone.

To you Joe, we all say "Thanks". It takes a good editor to make a good paper and I think we've had both!

Sincerely Chippy

(Chippy note: Joe cut this out, but I had Nabel sneak it back in.)

CHIPPY CHATTER BY CHIPPY CHIPPY

Hi fellow students,

Here we are at the beginning of a perfect summer and the end of a perfect semester.

Many things have been happening during these past few days. Let me tell you about some of them.

The other night I hopped to the Mummy Club meeting. Just as I put my nose under the door and tried to peek in, I was nearly trampled to death. From what I saw it looked as though Joe Arden was just too glad to get out for some fresh air. What's the scoop, Joe?

"Let's get this show on the road," is Mr. Steal's favorite saying when he brings his botany students on a field trip. Dig those crazy botanists!

The other day I found out that I'm going to be minus one more friend next semester--and how I liked red hair. (Can't we persuade you to stay, Red?)

Because Jane Tressler is leaving the Center this semester she has decided to leave all her 3's behind. (Anyone care to buy a few extra 3's?)

The other day as I was perched in the tree I saw my friend Mary Hasara sporting a new hairdo. It looks real cool Mary, real cool!

Mrs. Smith told me that she bids a sad (?) adieu to all those students who never helped keep the dining room clean.

How come Jane Tressler was asking everyone to have a second helping of potato salad at the school picnic. Could it be that she was partial? Now, now, Jane.

Tony Tarone proved that he wasn't chief point arguer only in ping pong. He proved the same tactics were true also in volley ball.

Did anyone notice the professional style on that badminton champ Andy Diaz? You should have been at the picnic to see him show it off.

Joan Greising and Marie Jacko have decided to leave their theme song "Together" to Nancy Kibler and Jean Haegle.

I hear Harriet Tulin has made a solemn vow to stop cutting botany lab! Oh, this lovely spring fever! ! !

As I sat perched in a tree the other day I began to think about the poor
