

CHIPPY'S LETTER TO ELVIN (continued)

Until we meet (for the first time) I'll say so-long. It's been nice reading your columns even if there were only four.

THE SORORITY SPLURGES

A dinner was held Thursday, May 21, (last night) at Singley's. The purpose of it was to have a last minute gathering and to bid farewell to the sorority girls who are leaving. Gifts were presented to Elise Krieger, Marie Jacko, Joan Griesing, Mary Hasara, Habel Lewis, and Jane Tressler. The girls bid a final farewell to Miss DiRubbo and after the dinner all the girls proceeded to Penn State to attend Thursday evening dancing class.

IU DELTA SIGMA ADOPTS CONSTITUTION

Wednesday evening in the Main Lounge the last Iu Delta Sigma Fraternity meeting was called to order by President Joe Belvich. In the presence of their Dean of Men, Mr. Ralph N. Kreckler, the constitution of the frat was read to the members and after two proposed and passed amendments it was adopted by a unanimous vote. The auditing committee comprised of John Carr, Dave Edwards, and Frank Smida worked on the frat books with the Sigma treasurer--Jack Graniak--before the meeting and promptly at 7:45 made their report to the fraternity members who quickly accepted it.

Various other measures were voted upon and passed, but we understand that they were strictly Iu Delta Sigma. However, Tony DeTona, Norm Hall, and Bob Henney were elected to the Interim Council. These men were elected to this council because they are returning next year and because they are capable of filling officer positions until the regular officers take office after the fraternity election.

Only 6 frat members are returning to Highacres next year and upon their shoulders falls the responsibility of upholding the fraternity's No. 1 spot. These frat men are Joe Arden, Norm Hall, Bob Henney, Tony DeTona, John Lisoda, and Cal Shipman. Those leaving are Pres. Joe Belvich, Vice-Pres. John Shark-wicz; Treasurer, Steve Warner and Jack Graniak; and capable frat men: Pete Pawuk, Andy Karpinski, Short Smida, John Carr, Stan Miller, Carl Williams, Jim Elliott, Ed Eisinger, Pete Kerutis, Paul Bain, Cyril Carroll, Ed Koller, and Dave Edwards--quite a lot of frat men who sure will be missed around here next year for when they leave they will leave behind them one of the nicest impressions ever left on Highacres by any one single organization. Their list of activities for the college year of 1952-53 is a very large one. In athletics: they produced a championship football team which lost but one game all season, a championship baseball team which also lost but one game; both teams playing under the name of the Yankee Kippers. In social activities it was the frat that put on one of the nicest programs that were held at Highacres--the annual Christmas Party. At the evening dances it was the frat men (Dixieland Trio)--Pelick, Graniak, and Eisinger, who help boost Bob Tomsho's admirable enterprise. Whenever the cry for help is heard--frat men will always be seen coming to the rescue. On Parnassus the frat is equally represented by Joe Belvich, Dave Edwards, John Carr, John Lisoda, and Cal Shipman. On the Athletic Committee--the Sigma displays Jim Elliott, Tony DeTona, and Joe Belvich. In Student Council--the Center's governing body--we have President Andy Karpinski, John Carr, treasurer, while Cal Shipman, Frank Smida, and Nick Pelick fill up the Council positions. It has been frat men from shabby clothed stadium clean-up men to classy dressed ushers
