

SORORITY BEGINS ACTIVITIES

Last Wednesday in S-101 The Theta Sigma Pi Sorority held its first meeting of the fall semester. All Sophomore and Freshmen girls attended and viewed the films of the Spring May Crowning which were shown by Mr. M.E. Campbell. Dossenbach, the new Dean of Women, and Mary Donish took charge of the nominations for the new officers.

A committee composed of several Sophomore members then announced the informal initiation of the pledges--if you haven't noticed the center's own Annie Oaklies--

1. three pigtails
2. one apron-- on backwards
3. one earring
4. one name tag--pinned on the front
5. one stocking and one sock

Most of the pledges have been good sports about this part of their initiation and we must say that we are sure all have enjoyed this part.

The pledges will become full pledged members following the formal initiation which took place last night at the Highacres.

The latest news is the results of the election held on Friday.

Pres.- Harriet Tulin
 V. Pres.- Nancy Maue
 Sec.- Jean Haegele
 Treas- Margie Brehm

We are sure the incoming officers with the cooperation of Miss Dossenbach and the other members of the sorority will do all in their power to make this an eventful year.

SORORITY INITIATIONS ADDS HUMOR TO CAMPUS

If you thought you saw a girl coming toward you, these past few days, but who seemed to be going away from you, we hope you didn't think your mind was going off the blink. It was only a freshman dressed a little backwards. This week the Sophomores were initiating the newcomers into the Theta Sigma Phi Sorority. It took the "Sophs" to think of making the Frosh coeds wear an apron backwards, one earring, one stocking and one sock, braided hair or straight bangs and an 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 11 name sign pinned to their collars.

As Jackie Cohn and Carolyn Arlotto walked off the bus on Monday morning, two wide-eyed males thought they saw Pocahontas and Little Miss Muffet, while Nancy Maue could have passed for "Daisy Mae". If the men's fraternity would have coincided with the girls' initiation, we might have had a "Lil Abner". Take a hint men!

Even though it was a little annoying, the freshman girls took the comments and razzes as good sports would.

MUSIC ROOM

Last Monday evening Miss Garbrick and Mr. Ward gave a program of recorded music with the aid of the college's high fidelity sound equipment. Next Monday, October 5, at eight o'clock, there will be another program of this kind in the music room. All students are cordially invited to attend.

CHORUS

The College-Community Chorus, directed by Miss Pearl Garbrick, got off to a good start Tuesday evening, September 22, with a turnout of 15 persons. More members are expected to join the chorus in the next sessions. Rehearsals for the annual Christmas program are well under way. This program is scheduled for Tuesday, December 15.

The chorus has also been invited to sing for the American Association of University Women at their Christmas Banquet on Thursday, December 17.
