
 HUP, TWO THREE FOUR . HUP

The new AFROTC cadets have been put through drilling paces this past week, and as usual are sweating it out until they get to learn the AIR FORCE methods. After they get three weeks' training they will get their first big test in the Mumner's parade in which all the cadets will march.

Most of the fellows are learning fast, and we know that they will make a fine showing on October 17, at the parade.

GOOD NEWS FOR FRESHMEN????

Hazing week will be held after the Student Council meets and decides to what rules the first semester freshmen will have to adhere.

According to a sophomore's definition, "hazing week" consists of five days of torture for underclassmen in which they are submitted to various stunts and pranks.

The time is drawing nearer, freshmen. Enjoy your privileges while you can!

THE ROVING REPORTER

The question the roving reporter asked this week was:

"What is your opinion of our new recreation hall? What are your suggestions?"

Bill Morse- sophomore

"To me, the things are in the wrong rooms. Put the ping-pong table in the TV room."

Roy Atherholt- sophomore and ping-pong champ of last semester-----

"Let's get my work table where I can play my game without injury; in that room ping-pong is a dangerous pastime."

Gene Charney---- sophomore

"My opinion is that the TV room is fine; but the ping-pong room is really too small to play a good game. I also suggest that the sofas should be put back in the main lounge."

"I think it's good to have a place to relax. But it should be a little bigger." Nancy Maue---- freshman

"It's terrific. Only they should play more polkas on the television set." Nick Dobrovolsky---- sophomore

"The rec Hall is a good idea, but there should have more room for the ping-pong table." Evelyn Tomasko----freshman

"The Rec Hall is a fine place to get acquainted with your classmates, but I do think the Ping-pong table is in the wrong place." Virginia Muscavitch

"I think the ping-pong table is in the wrong place." Lilly Junas

After examining the results of the poll. It appears that most students aren't keen about the Ping-Pong cell.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT.-----

The Zoo Lab is jumping. Yes, man-15 live frogs have recently been added to the Zoology department's exhibits.

In a day or two no one will recognize Mr. Steel's "Iron Horse" there is a rumor that he is simonizing it.-

Seniors--Hugh McGeehan and Jack Donovan called off their secret pet-----

Phys Sci students were examining heavenly bodies Tuesday evening. Mary Donish squinted into the telescope and gave out a blood-chilling scream.

"A man from Mars!"---- It was only Norm Hall with ear muffs; it was a chilly night.

It has been rumored that there will be some tremendous prizes awarded to the winner of the Name the Building Contest-The prizes will not be announced until after the contest.

Since all the Political signs have been put up all over the place, most of the instructors have to use scissors to get into the class rooms.

A few ambitious music lovers are in the early stages of forming a vocal quintet.

Reserved seats in the TV room during the series, can be acquired by applying at Mr. Kreckler's office. Prices are moderate; ORDER NOW!!!