STUDENT COUNCIL

The regular meeting of Student Council was held Wednesday, November 11, 1953 in the Student Council office, President Shipman Presided.

Mr. Mattern urged the Council to be more prompt in pasting dates in the School Activity Calendar. He also reported that the faculty recommended that the girls will be allowed to play ping pong in the room in the second story of the rec. hall and the boys will play ping pong in the Second story of Memorial Dorm.

The faculty further felt that the dancing class seems to be losing its original objective of teaching students to dance. They further recommended that the dancing class end at 10:30 P.M. so that the building is emptied at 11:00 P.M.

OLD GLORY TRIUMPHS

After a year of articles filled with embarrassment, ridicule, threat and tears, the COLLEGIAN Staff had just about given up its motheaten campaign to get a flag on our flagpole, when lo and behold, a P.P.&L. crew appeared one morning this week and quietly ran up the colors. We do not know if it was our "yellow journalism" and the desire to silence our half-baked editorials that set the big wheels in motion, but whatever agency responsible (our "spy" unofficially reports it was Mr. Campbell), we wish to express our gratitude.

Our "spy" also reports--straight from Captain Carper's hanger--that the ROTC may accept the responsibility for raising and lowering the colors. It is a shame that Corporal Gattas - Chairman of the "Vets' Military Ball" Committee - is not a member of ROTC so he could show up every evening with his bugle and his steel helmet and play "taps".

COEDS ARE SURPRISED

Are the coeds Surprised? One week before their first (in many cases) college semi-formal and they don't know whether the men are going to "ask them" to go.

This suspense can be broken only by the men of the college.

Coeds are concerned because gowns, shoes, and accessories have to be readied for such an event. And the gentlemen, of course, want their dance dates to scintillate with glamor.

The men need not hesitate: their chances of being turned down are not so great as their modesty might make them think.

BASKETEERS UNDAUNTED

Hazleton's first snowstorm, 13 inches worth, proved incapable of damping the spirits of Highacres basketball team. All but one of the seventeen members braved the elements last Friday night to put on an appearance.

Coach "Zack" Taylor was well pleased at the turnout and abundance of height among his prospects in the persons of Clint Frank, Bob Boyle, Jack Polchin, Norm Hall and Stan Grusewski, all of whom tower well over six feet. Chores of play making and ball handling will be ably divided among Tom Swick, Vernon Raos, Jim "The Bear" Kobrick, Ivan Michael, Joe Marchese, Bill Burcin, Paul George, Fran Lawrence, Norm Lapinshy and Larry Mitchell.

The boys practice three times a week, brewing plenty of trouble for their opening game against Mont Alto the first week in December.
