

PENN STATE MAKES NATIONAL HEADLINES.....

Our institution's new name is PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY.... Souds good, doesn't it? The change went into effect last saturday, November 14, 1953. This is the third time that the name of the school has been changed. In 1856 the institution was founded under the name of "The Farmer's High School of Pennsylvania". Then in 1862, its name was changed to "The Agricultural College of Pennsylvania". In 1874 the college name became "PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE". Now it's "PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY".

SORORITY NEWS

The THETA SIGMA PI Sorority held its second meeting of November last nite with the president presiding.

There was a short business meeting in which all the plans for the semester were discussed.

After the business meeting the girls listened to an excellent speaker and watched a demonstration on cosmetics. The speaker and the demonstrator were from Ceils Cosmetic Shop. They spoke about makeup and showed us how to apply makeup and what color to use.

Following the demonstration refreshments were served and a good time was had by all.

COLLEGIAN HIGHLIGHTS

O-H-H-H THOSE CARS?

I was wondering thru the parking lot the other day, trying to find my powerful limousine when I began to think of how much everyone uses the lot. Just for fun I counted the number of people tearing around, so here's an idea of what goes on for just a few minutes of the day.

First RAY CORBE came roaring past me in his Pontiac, scaring all the other drivers and state police within a radius of fifty miles. After Ray passed PAUL ZEMMER came along and started to back out his Plymouth when PAT TOLSHO came along in her little Austin and stopped in the middle of the driveway to talk to JOE FERRO, who was sitting in his dainty little Cadillac. After PAUL ground away his gears for awhile Pat finally moved, only to have YENCHI come flying around in his Chevie and fouled everything up. Suddenly there was a swish as Capt. Carper USAF, came whizzing past in his JAG (is it true that a certain PIERCE ARROW sputters everytime it comes near that speed wagon)? Speaking of high priced cars, what has happened to JOE MARCHESE? One day he drive in an old plymouth and the next day he drives by in a mile long Caddie. While on the subject of unusual vehicles SALLY RARICH should be able to give us quite a lot of information on MOTORCYCLES, Sally has been flying rather low. So by this time I had started to leave everything had quieted down except for BUDDY DANIAN who kept blowing his horn a MARY JANE SKAFF in her big truck, or was it just MARY??? Just about that time CHARLIE ROMANOSKI came by on his SCOOTER, and JEAN PLATT racing like mad behind CHARLIE, SHOUTING "OH YOU AWFUL, AWFUL CAD, WHY WOULDN'T YOU GIVE LEE A RIDE".

Charlie said, Next week when I bring out my 1954 Plymouth Station Wagon, all the girls will be welcome.(canary yellow and green trimmed)

From the looks of things everyone has a nice shiny powerful car to drive in, but as for me, give me a WASH, or let me WALK.
