DORM HIGHLIGHTS

Never a dull moment when you reside in the DORM. You would never realize what activity actually goes on. If you ever see lights blazing through the dormitory windows at 2 or 3 A.M., it doesn't necessarily mean MR. ZERBE'S or MR. PEIGHTAL'S BLUE BOOK the next day; it means that the "NITTANY LION", PAUL WANKO, has honored the fellas with his famous "NITTANY ROAR", and they are merely recording it for POSTERITY.

The students of PENN STATE would be very surprised to know that the school has 5 golden throat crooners, and 3 orators. These 8 gifted people practice their talents only when the BLUE BOOKS are cold. Generally Cal. SHIPMAN-FRANK GATTAS, known as the WHITE TURK, and woman killer, PAUL WANKO-CHARLIE (analytic geometry) ROLANOSHI, NORM HALL and BOB (Roberto) HENNEY, gather in JOHN CRINE'S and BERNARD GROM's room to tape record one of their numerous hit tones, incidently they will be available very shortly for student consumption, so keep posted. They are listed as the "THE THREE B's" (BARROOM BRAWL BOYS) Mr. STEELE, you better get that inside information from the boys, they may help make one of your arrangements a SQUASH.
