

"THE COLORS ARE FLYING"

The COLLEGIAN STAFF is happy to announce that they have received many favorable comments concerning the fine appearance of "OUR FLAG". Although the flag waves because of the polar blasts, it radiates the warmth of FREEDOM that AMERICAN PATRIOTISM will not evict.

Beginning on MONDAY the AFROTC CADETS will take the responsibility of raising and lowering "OUR FLAG". The CADETS who will do the honors for the remainder of the semester are:

DIAZ	BYSURA	SCOTT	MASTROIANNI
KOCHLE	BRESLIN	YORI	CARBE
JOHNSON, J.E.	STAUFFER	BEROSH	BURGRAFF
CORRIGAN	JOHNSON, B.A.	GAYDOS	GOEPPERT
CRINE, J.	BECCONE	VERSINGER	KERSHNER

*****

LIBERAL ARTS SCHOOL ADOPTS NEW REQUIREMENTS...

The SCHOOL of the LIBERAL ARTS has adopted General Graduation Requirements for all curricula, both changes effective this semester. In addition to the General Graduation Requirements there have been a number of changes in majors and curricula.

GENERAL GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

General requirements that have been established for all students of the School who are candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts are:

- (1) Six credits in each of the following five fields:
  - (a) English composition; (b) history; (c) philosophy; and (e) music or art.
- (2) Twelve credits in each of the following three fields:
  - (a) foreign language, ancient or modern; (b) science and mathematics; (c) the social sciences.
- (3) Three credits in psychology
- (4) Four credits in Physical Education for male and female students; and six credits in R.O.T.C. courses for male student.
- (5) Fifty-three credits in the major field (24-36) and in electives to bring the total up to 132 credits for men and 126 credits for women. (Six required credits in any field will be counted towards the major.)

These required credits in the designated fields are to be completed in the following sequences:

- (1) Before the beginning of the third semester: six credits in each of the following fields: (a) English composition (E. Cmp. 1 and 2 or 5); (b) history; (c) a foreign language. (18 credit
- (2) Before the beginning of the fifth semester: (a) six additional credits in the same ancient or modern language, (b) six credit in the social sciences, (c) three credits in philosophy (1), and (d) twelve credits in a natural science or mathematics. Total: 27 credits.
- (3) Before beginning the eighth semester: (a) six credits in literature, (b) six additional credits in the social sciences (c) six credits in art or music, (d) three additional credits in philosophy (phil. 2,3,) and (e) three credits in psychology Total: 24 credits.