

COLLEGE ART SOCIETY NEWS (continued)

ties. Anyone interested in any phase of dramatics is invited to participate. Further information will be given at a later date.

A special note to members is a reminder of the regular meeting to be held today during the FIFTH PERIOD in room M-207.

HAZLETON CENTER TRIUMPHS FOR 3RD WIN

Our Penn State Center boys romped to their third win in three starts as they hammered the Hershey Junior College on Wednesday night by a score of 71-54.

Hazleton led a fighting game all the way, getting 16 quick points in the first quarter compared to Hershey's mere 5 counters. At half time we left the floor with an eleven point margin, and from there on we coasted to an early win.

Tall Norm Hall and kangy Bob Boyle were high men for our quintet with 15 and 14 counters respectively. Clint Frank also hit the double numbers with 11 big markers. Jackie Polshin, Vern Raos, and Stan Grusenisky sank 24 more Hazleton points. Bill Burcin, while only sinking one field goal, was a good all-around performer. Gamble Pellegrin, and Kline made 16 of the 59 points for Hershey.

Hershey beat us on the foul line making good for 13 out of 22 tries, while we were throwing in 10 out of 27 tries.

Lions, our fighting and determined mountain center team, now look forward to their next game, a battle with the Johnstown quintet, on Friday night, January 6, at the A.D. Thomas gym at 3rd and Grant Streets in Hazleton.

Please give our team more support. Help our men to continue their winning pace so they will lead us to a championship finish.

CREDIT OPPORTUNITIES

An opportunity for students to earn college credit in chorus will be possible if any choose to do so next semester.

Miss Garbrick announced this is the last issue of the Collegian.

In order to receive credit for this choral activity, the student must attend 3 hours of rehearsals per week—one hour to be during school hours, and the others to be consumed in Tuesday evening classes.

Even though this new idea has been incorporated in the chorus, it will still be open to members of the community and to students who wish to participate.

The plans for the organization of the chorus are not complete as yet, but anyone interested in the organization is to see Miss Garbrick or Mr. Kostos

E-E-E-K THE VIRUS

Last Monday the dispensary was crowded with students suffering from a rare malady. It seems that some new virus called The Christmas Hangover has been infecting everyone. Queer though, as soon as the words Blue Book are mentioned, the victims of this new disease turn a deep shade of green and begin shaking and mumbling something about cramming. The only cure yet known for this infection is a strict diet of study and threatening by certain instructors. The worst part of this whole thing is the fact that no one ever finds out who the victims are until after the vacation. When such statements as "finals are coming," are mentioned, the virus takes a new grip on its victim and forces him to go out at night in order to recuperate, slowly, from his illness.

As time goes on new discoveries are being made, but it appears that this disease is very contagious and thusly it is hard to cure. This school must have been hard hit—everyone is suffering. But keep your chins up! As soon as finals roll around, and the recuperation begins, everyone will return to normal. Until then, the only thing that can be said is, "Happy hangover."

STUDENT CAPPERS

Santa Claus was good to many of our students. Dick Ressa and Bob Scott are sporting their new stripped vests. Tommy Gaydos got white bucks while Ginger