

Muscavitch is tromping in her neat boots.

We say congratulations to our own Bill Burcin for his bravey in achieving the first part of his future life.

Mary Donish returned to school on Wednesday of this week, not Monday like the rest of us. Was it that you wanted a longer vacation or was it really hearing trouble, Mary?

What was this we hear about Mr. Ward's fancy decorated spot on his kitchen ceiling? He blamed it on the pressure cooker full of oatmeal that blew up in an atomic explosion. Experimenting at home now?

Miss Brennan asked Norm Hall in Spanish class if he got a permanent. It must be the weather that made the waves stand out, Norman? No?

*****

*****

The COLLEGIAN Staff, the entire faculty and student body wish to extend our deepest sympathy to Joe Birt in the loss of his father December 25.

*****

STAFF THIS ISSUE

Managing Editor George Mastrian
Copy Editor Norm Hall
Typists Ilona Weltman, Art Teel

Contributing Writers

Ellen Iffert
Lilli Junas

Art Teel
Ilona Weltman

HAVE

FUN

AT THE

AFROTC

MILITARY
BALL