

---

 HEARD AROUND CAMPUS

Nancy Kibler asking Bob Stauffer who Alice (the light of his life) is; Betty Iffert being warned to begin wearing skirts. Jack Donovan asking Mrs. Buehne how old she is; Ken Fuehrer telling his side-kicks how he slipped on the ice and broke his ankle (where?); Flo Pusti inquiring if anyone wants to be introduced to a "junk" peddler; Randall Grasley and Gerry Root exclaiming "peachy" as they scan the world of the unknown through the microscope; Jim (the bear) Kobrick telling he dated Jean Veglia because she had long finger nails and could scratch his head; Betty I. and Jackie Cohn asking Mrs. Smith for an old spoon so they could bury a dead rabbit they came across on one of their private field trips; Lois Miller introducing the new sorority mascot "Pierre Pouche" to the girls; Bob (call me gunner) Boyle and Johnstown Jack Polchin sounding off about the crack basketball team they're going to have next year after they farm out all the "old men" to the campus; Margie Brehm relating that she missed a day of school because she was hit by a tidal wave (Mary B.); Mike Blass complaining that he's having great difficulty concentrating; Maryann Kowalick counting calories and then ordering a half sandwich; Ralph Whitmer proudly telling a group that the color of his pants is "olive"; John Crine (B.N.) complaining that the dorm boys caught him smoking a cigarette and slapped his wrists and sent him to bed without supper; Bernie Gromniak and Mr. Steel conducting a scholarly discussion about the opposite sex; Joe Arden asking Joe Kraynick what the word "sex" means.

P.S.

Song of the week----- "All of Me"

---

COLLEGE ARTS

Beggar by day and rich man by night is the hero of the Mexican film production (in Spanish with English subtitles) "Dios se lo Pague" to be presented by the College Arts Society, Monday night, March 1 in the college lounge. All the students and the public are invited.

It was announced that the College Arts Society will show a filming of the Penn-State-Pitt football game. This will take place at some later date.

There will be a meeting for all members fifth period Wednesday, March 3 in Room 211.

---

STAFF

Managing Editor	George Mastrian
Copy Editor	Norm Hall
Typists	C. Arlotto, M. Lotito, M. Skoff, J. Diliberto
Production	R. Stauffer, I. Weltman      Stencils: S. Ray, A. Teel
Writers	L. Junas, N. Turnbach, E. Iffert, R. Henney