WHAT'S THE SCOOP???

An investigation was made to determine whose cars have the most mileage on them. The results were as follows: Lawrence (Sid) Sydlo won first prize. His 1930 Model A Ford has 198,734 miles on it. Joseph (Doc) Dougherty capped second prize with his 1936 Plymouth. His antique travelled 191,832 miles. Jim Johnson's 1936 Pontiac won third prize for him. It rolled up the speedometer to 188,468 miles.

The first prize was a bid from Kress' Auto Wrecking Company. The second prize is a can of Piston Seal. The third prize was a new windshield wiper.

The investigation was made through the courtesy of the U Drive It Company, Inc.

ATTENTION: Tom Gaydos.....You are the only student who wears white bucks that are white. Get hep, man, have them stepped on a few thousand times so they become stylish.....Jack McGraw, a first semester student from Freeland, was awakened at five o'clock in the morning by a loud, loud telephone ring. When he answered it, he was asked to pick up a patient.....Don't be alarmed readers, his father has an ambulance service.

P.S. Jack was wide awake by the time his first class rolled around..... Since the last edition of the Collegian, Jack Burggraf hasn't been keeping late hours.....Jack, have you lessened your hours of study or your hours of romance??..... Let's be honest about this.....Have you seen Bernie Kemsel's new shoes??? Man, are they cool.....Ralph Catino claims that his friends smoke so much that he has to take two packs of cigarettes to school, one for his friends and one for himself.....Pete McMonigle is sporting the sweater he received for his athletic contributions while attending Hazle Township. Don't miss seeing this garment..... Dig those new charcoal grey flannel pants that Francis Gattas has been wearing. Cool, man, cool.....

CAMPUS GIGGLES

-----Mr. Grubbs gave each of his writers the Pall Mall award for notable service in the field of journalism. The prize was a Pall Mall Cigarette.

-----Jim Kobrick was overheard saying, "I don't have anything against people, it's just civilization I hate."

-----Mr. Wilcox to students: "The footnotes aren't too important."

Mr. Grubbs to students: "You mean to tell me you don't read footnotes."

-----Al Kielbasa to Bob Stoffey: "Say something witty, Bob, so we can get our names in CAMPUS GIGGLES."

TAKE IT UP AMONG YOURSELVES

In last week's edition of THE COLLEGIAN an article as printed about a proposed yearbook. We haven't heard too many opinions and ideas about our idea so far. When do you start talking it up?? Let THE COLLEGIAN staff know what the student body wants. Staff members are willing to sacrifice their time if you, with them, are willing to sacrifice a slight fee, not exceeding $1.50. We want it-----Do you???
