

HAZLETON COLLEGIAN
Weekly Newsletter Edition

The Pennsylvania State University Center
Highacres, Hazleton, Pennsylvania

Vol. XVI, No. 19

March 12, 1954

---

GET ON THE BAND WAGON

Tonight's the night.----Yes, gang, March 12th has arrived.----the day that contains the night we've been waiting for.

After seeing all the posters on ceilings, halls, door and walls, and even on Bob SCOTT, every one is filling his gas tank, polishing his shoes and catching up on his sleep so that he can enjoy this night of nights for FUN, FROLIC, and SHENANIGANS.

SEE YOU TONIGHT AT 8:00.

---

SPORTS HEADLINER:

Center Five dumped by York J.C. In Championship Playoff: Jack POLCHIN suffers Fractured Foot

After trouncing Keystone Collge in its initial bid for a Junior College Championship, Friday night, Hazleton Center locked horns with York J.C. with the idea of bringing home a State Championship.

Early in the first period, Lady Luck took its toll as Jack Polchin, versatile forward, suffered a fractured foot. To add to Zack Taylors "Ulcers", Clint Frank drew three early personal fouls and retired to the bench. Reserves took to the floor and although giving a good account of themselves could not keep up with York team that was really "UP" for the big one. The score, at the final whistle was York--80; HUC--62, thereby giving the Lions second place in the post season playoffs. Trophies and awards were presented after the game and 2nd place trophy will be displayed in the near future.

Jack Polchin's being side-lined for four weeks will be a severe jolt to Taylor's bid for a victory over Susquehanna Frosh on March 22. Tickets for the game will be available at the Main Office.

*ALL TOURNAMENT TEAM:

*Hall-----Hazleton
Stenner-----York
Trimmer-----York
**Auri-----York
Tracey-----Johnstown

*Conference Soring Champ
**Runner-up

---

SOFTBALL

Plans for an Intra-mural Softball League is presently being considered. Anyone interested in forming a team or interested in umpiring--contact Mr. Peightal, Athletic Advisor. Last year, approximately eight teams were entered, with games being played after final classes. Write your team members and Name of your team on a sheet of paper and hand it in to Mr. Peightal, pronto.