KIBLER AND HALL--MOST POPULAR

Returns from yesterday's Campus Popularity Election reveal that the student choices for Mr. and Miss Highacres are: MR Norm Hall and MISS Nancy Kibler. Seventy-five percent of the student body cast votes in the contest and Bob Henney was runner-up to Norm by a very slim margin. In the race for the most popular co-ed, Nancy Kibler took the top honor by a rather comfortable margin, but second place was crowded with a three-way tie among-Jan Magavich, Florence Pusti, and Harriet Tulin.

The Collegian extends its congratulations to the two Most Popular Male and Female Students and the winners will be crowned at the next Student Dance..

AND THE CHORUS GROWS

The College Community Chorus under the direction of Miss Garbrick is apparently growing. Last night's rehearsal was dominated by the men (a rather unusual occurrence). Several new male voices attended the rehearsal bringing the total number of warblers for the evening to Lucky 13.

The Chorus is rehearsing for its annual spring concert.
