

Those taking part in the Black Hawk Waltz were: Bev Wizdo and Robert Scott, Ellen Iffert and Robert Valaik, Mary Bissol and Robert Stauffer, and Janice Magavich and Thomas J. Anthony.

The Hemlock Chain, which led the procession, was composed of Lillian Junas, Virginia Muscavitch, Margie Bréhm, Mary Ann Kowalick, Nancy Maue, Jean Platt, Evelyn Tomasko, Mary Rock, Evelyn Krusko, Caroline Peters, Betty Iffert and Ilona Weltman.

Lois Miller was the herald and started the program with a short fanfare, while Shirley Ray read the class will to end the Coronation.

Refreshments and Open House was sponsored by the P. S. U. C. Auxiliary following the Coronation. Everyone enjoyed the rest of the afternoon taking pictures and meeting friends.

At 9:00 p.m. in the evening the students and faculty enjoyed themselves at the Queen's Ball, which was held at the Eagles Club House.
