

THE SOPHOMORES 1954

FLORENCE PUSTI

Ready with a winning smile and friendly "Hi" for all, Flo rates high with all. One of the part-time student, when she has neither studies nor work to do, she spends her time in the dining room as one of the "cafeteria gang". We won't forget her genuine friendliness and hearty laugh.

JANICE MAGAVICH

A member of Parnassus and Theta Sigma Pi, Jan is one of the "cafeteria gang". Blonde hair and the idea of "living it up" are two of Jan's distinguishing characteristics. When not playing croquette, the latest fad at the Center, she spends most of her time being a Friend to all.

JOSEPH BIRT

Joe Birt is a guy that everyone likes. His quiet manner doesn't label a "dead head", because although somewhat quiet he knows how to have a good time. This was Joe's 4th semester in Arts and Letters here at the Center; next semester he'll be at the Main Campus.

Elected the outstanding Sophomore AFROTC Cadet, Joe well deserved the honor. His leadership qualities and friendliness make him a marked man for advanced AFROTC where he will eventually become a Jet Pilot.

GALE GREGORY

Gale would much rather be called "Greg". A true Arts and Letters man, "Greg" enjoys delving into Philosophy and Literature. "Greg" is another fellow who's headed for the Main Campus. When there, he intends to change his curriculum to Education.

JAMES P. GREISING

Jimmy is another of those quiet types, but that's with the women, we understand. Jim's curriculum for the past four semesters has been Business Administration, as it will be for the next four semesters. After that Jim heads for a Commission in the U. S. Airforce, by way of AFROTC.

BEVERLY WIZDO

Enrolled in Business Administration, Bev divides most of her time between keeping up her average and socializing. Besides being a member of Theta Sigma Pi and Parnassus, she frequents the Recreation Hall. Though reserved and quiet Bev is friendly to all who know her.
